of an order made by the Hon. E. Woodward, County Judge of Benton County, State of Oregon, dated the 12th day of October 1906.

The date of the first publication hereof is October 15th, 1906.

at Ninth & VanBuren streets, an Italian chestnut tree which has come into prolific bearing at eight years old. Several samples of nuts from the tree left at the TIMES office measure three inches in circumference.

—Col. Thorp wrote from Massachusetts that he was at the historical town of Plymouth, famous as the landing place of the Pilgrims.
"The lasting rock," he says, "on which they first stepped with Miles Standish to meet the Indians on shore is still here. I stood on it today just for the curiosity of the thing. I have also seen many relics of the Mayflower."

—The brick work of the rear and side walls of the new postoffice building are completed up to the ceiling joists. To the casual observer and perhaps to others, this part of the work seems to have been done in record-breaking time by Chilly Headrick and Sam Hughes.
Workmen are now engaged in laying the pressed brick of which the front of the building is to be constructed.

—A scoreless game was the outcome of the football struggle between OAC and the University of Washington eleven at Seattle Saturday. Though the Washingtonians had in the game six veterans with Captain Crim at their head, they could not score on the Oregonians. The play was largely a punting contest. OAC was weakened in the very opening of the play by the forced retirement of Looney, Pendergrass and Wolff did the best work for OAC. The game was witnessed by 1500 people.
The OAC team arrived home Sunday noon and were warmly welcomed.

—Saturday a skating rink was opened at the opera house by S.
Plymale, with favorable prospects of a long run of business. Mr Plymale has had much experience in the conduct of this form of amusement, and there is no doubt that by reason of the excellent management which seems assured the rink will soon become a popular resort for both gentlemen and ladies. Children are to be admitted to the rink between the hours of 4 and 6. There will be special hours for beginners, and such other arrangements as experience has shown are acceptable to the public.
Good order is one of the conditions which Mr. Plymale insists upon.
No hoodlumism, such as is too common at such resorts, is permitted.

—Saturday evening was looked forward to with delightful anticipation by recipients of invitations to the dancing party of Professors F. D. McLouth, F. L. Kent, John McDougall, and W. T. Shaw.
Fishers hall was the scene of a gay and merry throng that reluctantly dispersed at midnight. Couches and cosy corners added much to appearance of the ball and the refreshments are declared to have been the most delicious of the season. The guests were: Mrs. R. S.
Bryson of Eugene, Mrs. E. R. Bryson, Misses Lulu Spangler, Mary Nolan, Mable Withycombe and

"THE HOLY CITY."

To be Given at the Opera House Thursday Night.

Just now when the country is flooded with cheap clabtrap melodramas, it is refreshing to know that we are to have "The Holy City," a play dealing with the Book of John. This is a theatrical occasion that can well be remembered. Give us good plays, pure plays and those whose nature embodied in their plots tem- with the stimulating inspiration that makes the evil good and the good better, such a play as "The Holy City" should be welcomed with a reverence seldom bestowed upon the stage. This is one of the best of the eastern road attractions and is guaranteed to be thoroughly firstclass. The advance sale opened this morning and has been unusually large, bespeaking a crowded house.

TO PORTLAND HOSPITAL.

Serious Result of Seemingly Slight Injuries to R. K. Hunseker.

R. K. Hunseker, step-father of the Leder brothers, was conveyed to Portland Monday in an unconscious condition. Two weeks ago he was thrown violently from a wagon, but at that time his injuries were deemed but slight.
Later, symptoms of brain trouble developed, but physicians from here and from Albany, failed to relieve him, and upon the advice of Dr.
Cathey, Mr. Hunseker was conveyed to Good Samaritan hospital.
Sunday morning the old gentleman lapsed into unconsciousness and as lay upon a couch at the depot Monday there was a general expression of sympathy for him and a number of relatives standing about. No word has as yet come to this office as to the probable outcome of the case. Dr. Cathey and Adolph Leder accompanied the stricken man to Portland.

DOINGS OF STOCK MEN.

Mutton Market Strong—Stock Sheep in Demand—Recent Deals.

Stock men are quite busy in this locality at this time, but the activity, is confined largely to the buying and selling of sheep. There is a heavy demand for mutton and this fact with other favorable conditions creates a demand for stock sheep. During this fall large numbers of sheep have been brought to the valley from the Eastern Oregon ranges and disposed of to farmers for breeding purposes, in lots of from 200 to 500. They are largely of the Ramboulet strain.

About the first of October George Brown and Pete Whitaker bought a band of 2 900 Eastern Oregon sheep, and all but about 400 of these have been disposed of for breeding purposes. Last week Lee Brown went up on the McKenzie river and received a band of 1 300 sheep which had been summered on the Cascade reserve. Two hundred of these Mr. Brown disposed of in Lane county, and Saturday he passed through town with the remaining 1100, on the way to his ranch in the northern part of Benton. Many of this band however, are mutton sheep. The latter with a large number of native mutton sheep are likely to be taken to the Pacific States Packing Co., at once by Mr. Brown, if negotiations pending are successful. They are to be driven to Portland on foot.

In addition to sales recorded in the last TIMES, we learn of the sale of 200 breeding ewes by Billy Zel-laty of Blodgett, to Phillippi & Son of Linn county, at $4.50 per head. Another sheep deal is that of J. N. McFadden, who sold to Jim Mace, for the Portland market, 200 lambs. These are to be shipped Friday.
