

Summons.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Benton County. Minnie Clegg, Plaintiff vs. John Arthur Clegg, Defendant.

To John Arthur Clegg, the above named defendant in the name of the State of Oregon you are hereby summoned and required to appear and answer the complaint of plaintiff in the above entitled suit in the above entitled Court now on file with the Clerk of said Court on or before six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, to-wit, on or before the 23rd day of November A. D. 1906.

Summons.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Benton County. Minnie Johnson, Plaintiff, vs. W. J. Johnson, Christopher C. Johnson, and Della Johnson, his wife, Defendants.

To W. J. Johnson the above named defendant in the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby summoned and required to appear, and answer the amended complaint of the plaintiff in the above entitled suit, in the above entitled Court, now on file in the office of the clerk of said court, on or before the last day of the time prescribed in the order for publication of this summons, made by the county judge of Benton county, state of Oregon, (twice) and herein after referred to as "writ," November 23, 1906, and you are hereby notified that if you fail so to appear, and answer the said complaint as herein required, for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the above entitled court for the relief demanded in her said amended complaint, name-ly:

For a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant W. J. Johnson, and that defendant W. J. Johnson be compelled to pay to the plaintiff, the sum of one thousand five hundred dollars for her support, and the support of her minor child, and that the certain deed made by the said defendant W. J. Johnson, to the said defendant Christopher C. Johnson, on the 24th day of April, 1906, and recorded on the 12th day of May, 1906, at page 212, Book 45, deed records of Benton county, Oregon, be canceled and set aside, and that the lands described in said deed be decreed to belong to said W. J. Johnson, and that one-third thereof, be set aside to said plaintiff, as her individual property, and that plaintiff be given the care, custody and control of the minor child of plaintiff and defendant W. J. Johnson, Florida Johnson, and for her costs and disbursements to be taxed, and for such other and further relief as the court may deem just and proper.

This summons is published in the Corvallis Times, once a week for six successive and consecutive weeks, beginning with the issue of October 12, 1906, and ending with the issue of November 23, 1906, and in pursuance of an order made by the Hon. E. Woodward, County Judge of Benton County, State of Oregon, dated the 12th day of October, 1906.

Summons.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Benton County. R. L. Taylor, Plaintiff vs. Abbey Taylor, Defendant.

To Abbey Taylor, the above named defendant in the name of the State of Oregon you are hereby summoned and required to appear and answer the complaint of plaintiff in the above entitled suit in the above entitled Court now on file with the Clerk of said Court on or before six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, to-wit, on or before the 23rd day of November, A. D. 1906.

And you are notified that if you fail so to appear and answer the said complaint as herein required the plaintiff will apply to the above Court for the relief prayed for in said complaint, to-wit: for a decree of said Court dissolving and annulling the marriage contract now existing between you and the plaintiff, and for the costs and disbursements of this suit.

This summons is published in the Corvallis Times once a week for six successive and consecutive weeks and in seven issues thereof, beginning with the issue of October 12th, 1906, and ending with the issue of November 23rd, 1906, in pursuance of an order made by the Hon. E. Woodward, County Judge of Benton County, State of Oregon, dated the 12th day of October, 1906.

—Charles Chipman and family left yesterday for Chehalis to reside.

—The ladies of the Catholic church will give a fair and supper on December 5th.

—Miss Edna Thrasher was the guest of Portland relatives over Sunday.

—Miss Mabel Withycombe leaves tomorrow for a brief visit in Salem.

—Things have been found, and bargains are offered. Read about them in the TIMES classified column.

—Miss Florence Wicks, senior nurse at Good Samaritan hospital, arrived Saturday for a month's stay at the home of her mother, Mrs. Alice Wicks.

—Claud Cate of Hillsboro, left today after a few days' visit with relatives in Corvallis.

—An operation for appendicitis was performed on Norma Greffoz, of Marysville, California, last Friday, and at last accounts, the patient was improving. Miss Sophia Elgin is nursing her.

—The Clonician literary society was entertained by the Athenian society at the college Saturday evening. Music, recitations and readings, were the entertaining features of the evening. Herman Hector especially deserves credit for his piano selections rendered. At the close of the program, social conversation was enjoyed for a short time, and then all repaired to the reception room where light refreshments were served.

—Erwin Dubois, who with his father was for a time in the Benton jail in 1904 was the subject of a letter received at the sheriff's office Monday. He and his brother Floyd have been in custody in Lane county. Both figured a number of years ago in the theft of articles from Newport cottages. Their father was also accused, and for a time was held in the Benton county jail for the offense. The circuit court at Toledo, however, though it sent Erwin to the penitentiary for a year, failed to convict the father. Erwin served out his sentence and in due time fell into the hands of the Eugene authorities.

—If a house contains six bureaus eleven armories, seven chiffoniers and fifty three miscellaneous drawers, how many of 'em is the husband entitled to, and how many is the wife? asked the young clubman.

The second clubman laughed harshly.

"You are young and have much to learn," he said. "You may as well understand first as last that if there were in your house a mile of bureaus, three acres of armories and 16,000 drawers, all of these would still be stuffed full of veils, ruchings, hatpins, ribbons, silk stockings, petticoats, powder puffs and safety pins and the best course for you to pursue would be to wrap your own things—your shirts, underclothes, and so on,—in a newspaper and keep them under the bed."

—A lonely bachelor, at the age of 72, married a young wife. A Sunday or two after the wedding a widower asked the minister who had officiated at the wedding of the bachelor, to pray for him, as his own wife had just died. The minister in his prayer, therefore, did not fail to remember, "our aged and grieving brother, upon whom the heavy hand of sore affliction has so lately fallen."

At these words the old bridegroom, red and snorting with rage, rose from beside his girl wife.

"It may be a sore affliction," he growled audibly as he left the church, "but I'll be hanged if any man's going to pray for me in public that way."

—There is a renewal of anitiation for a Commercial Club for Corvallis, one that provides, not only commercial but social features. A committee is working on the scheme. Plans were discussed at a meeting of the Citizens League the other night. To obtain a suitable home with facilities for games and other means of spending a social evening were described as desirable features. The matter had been canvassed a few months ago, and a committee then appointed from the League was well provided with information gathered during the canvass of the situation. The information showed that $3,500 would be required to fit up a proper home and that a considerable income would be necessary for maintenance. A membership of 100 was suggested with an initiation fee of $20 or $25 and monthly dues of $1. The committee is headed by Mayor Johnson and is to report at the next regular meeting of the League.

—Friends in this city have received news that Thomas Skipton, a former Corvallisite, now living in Salem, sustained a fracture of the thigh bone last week.

—The committee appointed by the League to finance the big fair to be held in Corvallis, next year, begins its canvass of Corvallis tomorrow. The committee is, Superintendent Deuman, S. L. Kline, J. R. Smith, A. K. Ross and A. B. Cordley.

—James Flett is a candidate for a pair of crutches. The story of how he went to a football game and on the way sustained a fall and a sprained ankle was recently told in the TIMES. For a week his limb was twice its natural size, and Mr. Flett was not much more than able to move. He is getting better now and with crutches expects to visit the haunts on Main street.

—At a meeting of the members of the First Baptist church Sunday Rev. F. W. Carsten was called to serve as pastor until a permanent supply can be obtained. Rev. Carstens, who was pastor of the church at Medford for three years, left that congregation to accept a chair in McMinnville college. He is one of the strongest men in Oregon. Hereafter there will regular services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 10 a. m. and Young Peoples meeting at 6:30 p. m. Everybody welcome.

—Fifty-five dollars in prizes has been contributed by I. E. Richardson, president of the Corvallis Business College, to be awarded at the big three days fair to be held in Corvallis next year. The prizes comprise paid up courses in the Corvallis, Albany or Portland business colleges under the management of Mr. Richardson and are to be awarded for best penmanship and best essays by pupils on their own garden work. There is promise of an extraordinary list of prizes and this will incite the youngsters of the county into intense competition and insure a great fair.

GOT IT AT CORVALLIS.

What They Neve had Before—A Licking for The Dalles Football Men.

The Dalles Athletic Club which came to town with its unbroken record of victories at football, met its Waterloo Saturday. The score was OAC, nine, The Dalles, 0. The best worse than the score showed for in each instance the half closed with OAC headed for the goal of the Bunch Grassers and on the latter's 30 yard line. A little more time in each half would have made the score two touchdowns more for the collegians.

The men from Bunch Grass did not make yardage once, while OAC rushed them for 160 yards of ground. A fifteen yard run each by Looney, Hanan and Finn and a place kick by Wolff, were features. Line bucking by Wolff when he learns a bit more about how to hit a line will be future features. Wolff is a Portland boy, and if he does what he is capable of will be a strong candidate for all Northwest honors at full back. Other work that was noticed by sidelines, was the fighting power of Pendergrass always manifest, and Harding's efforts in breaking up plays that came his way. More speed and more clock work precision in launching formations is needed, and in time Coach Norcross will have it in his men if tireless labor and rare capacity can accomplish it. The next game of the season is on OAC field a week from Saturday, and it will be the annual struggle with Eugene. In Saturday's game sprained ankles sustained by each, very early in the play handicapped Cady and Hanan, and materially lessened OAC's aggressive power. The lineup of the collegians was as usual.
