CORVALLIS, OREGON,
TUESDAY EVENING, NOV. 20, 1906

At Portland, there is effort to prove that Willamette apples are as good as grow. The attempt will probably succeed. Hood River apples brought $3 a box this season. But to produce like Hood River and sell like her, Willamette must cultivate, spray, select orchard sites, sort, pack and market like Hood River. Under any other plan than that she employed Hood River would have failed. A properly selected site on soil 10 feet deep and drained as to water and air together with application of industry, science and sense are vital essentials. That done there will be no such word as fall in Willamette in apple growing and when that day comes, some lands that now sell for $10 for goat pasture will be worth $200 or $300 an acre for apple orchard, and the owners will be waxing rich.

If the San Francisco trolley deal gave Mayor Schmitz $3,500 for an outlay in oriental rugs for the floors of his house, what a snug sum there must have been for his Ruef.

If the announcement that Senator Platt is to resign were backed up by a good solid guarantee bond the several eligible New York gentlemen who are sitting up and taking notice of the rumor would feel more at liberty to act. A seat with a millionaire senator in it is never vacant until its vacant.

And was it for this that Jay Gould packed a surveyors chain in early manhood, wore old clothes and toiled, planned and saved, to wit; that he might become the father-in-law of a titled jackass with its lid always off?

Goodnough—Montieth Concert.

Mordaunt Goodnough, pianiste, John Claire Monteith, baritone, at the Presbyterian church, Thursday evening. Program begins at 8-30 sharp. Admission, adults, 35, children, 25. Concerning this attraction, the Morning Astorian says: "Every one present at the Montieith-Goodnough concert at the First M. E. church, was fortunate in devoting his or her evening to this especial entertainment. It was in an artistic sense, one of the finest and most satisfying ventures of the year and should have had a packed house to the doors. Everyone of the score of offerings by these talented gentlemen was encored heartily and appreciated deeply. The dismal weather and the primary election were interfering factors, but all who refrained from attending were distinct losers, whatsoever their reasons may have been."

CANVASSING FOR MEMBERS.

Many Have Signed the Call for Commercial Club—Who They are Eighty Members Wanted.

The committee appointed for the purpose, is canvassing for membership to the proposed commercial club. Up to today with but little effort the following have signed the call: John Allen, J. M. Nolan V. E. Watters, J. C. Hammel, A. J. Johnson, Dr. Harper, J. F. Yates, M. S. Woodcock, Walter Wiles, George Lilly, B. W. Johnson, B. F. Irvine, E. E. Wilson, E. R. Bryson, C. Schoenfeld, E. A. Harris. So far there have been no refusals.

As is well known Corvallis is the only town of its size in Oregon with out such an organization as is proposed. Even many smaller towns have well appointed club rooms with a large and interested membership. The equipment proposes reading rooms with all periodicals and newspapers, card rooms, bowling alleys, gymnasium with shower bath and other paraphernalia incident to such establishments. The membership is placed at not less than eighty and the admission fee at $25, and the dues at $1 per month. The committee will continue its canvass at convenient hours.

The Upper End Wins Game.

The upper end of Corvallis won from the Job's Addition eleven at football Saturday. The score was 10 to 0.

Harris played fine ball. The field was wet and slippery. The halves were twenty and twenty five minutes.

The first touchdown was made at the end of the first half by Moore. The second was made just before time was called in the second half by King.

The Upper Ends goal was never in danger. There was lots of punting in the game.

The lineup was as follows:

SMALLEST SALARY IN STATE.

For a Recorder—Benton Gets but Little More Than Half as Much as Next Lowest.

The fees of his office more than pay the salary of the county recorder. The recorder of Benton receives the munificent sum of $800 per year. The salary is the smallest paid by any county in the state. It was formerly $1,000 a year, and that is the figure at which it ought to have remained. Even at that figure, the office more than paid its way, and that is what made the reduction a curious circumstance. The receipts of the office in fees for August this year, $83.70; for September, $94.20; for October, $106.07; total for the quarter, $284.60. The salary of the recorder is $66.66 per month or for the three months referred to, $200. The excess of revenues over officer's salary is, $84.60.

The humiliating phase of the salary Benton pays is seen from the fact the county that pays the next lowest salary is Washington, whose recorder receives $1,563, nearly twice as much as the Benton recorder receives. In Baker county the cost last year of the recorder's office was $3,200, and in Umatilla, $3,400. In Columbia, a county of about the same importance as Benton, the office last year cost nearly $2,800. The reduction of the Benton salary took place with the beginning of the term of the present incumbent, or at the very time when advances in pay were being made all along the lines. It came too at a time when advancing prices of necessities has made the cost of living very high. After the recorder pays out the $200 or more that he cannot help spending in his campaign, and then after he makes the contributions to every passing church, school or other enterprise that calls for help, a mulcting to which all county officers are subjected and payment of which they cannot escape, there is little left for a recorder's house rent and supplies for his family. The wonder is that any man can be induced to run for the office, especially when he has to give bond, and assume charge of records, papers, and archives of the most important character.

Always Keeps Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in His House.

"If I would not be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is kept on hand continually in our home," says W. W. Kennedy, editor of the Independent, Lowry City, Mo. That is just what every family should do. When kept at hand ready for instant use, a cold may be checked at the outset and cured in much less time than after it has become settled in the system. This remedy is also without a peer for croup in children, and will prevent the attack when given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, which can only be done when the remedy is kept at hand. For sale by Graham & Wortham.
