

LOCAL LORE.

—Regular Sunday services at the Evangelical church. Rev. Hurd pastor.

—Clifford Elgin of Salem arrived Monday and is the guest of Corvallis relatives.

—The pastor of the M. E. church South will preach next Sunday on the following topics. At 11 a. m. "Christian establishment." At 7:30 p. m. "True Creations."

"Water, bring me a steak; you remember I was here yesterday."

"Yes sah, yes sah! I remember, will you have the same today?"

"Certainly, if no body else is using it."

—George Cathey came up from Portland yesterday and is at the family home in this city. He is just out of the hospital after a surgical operation for appendicitis a couple of weeks ago.

—Jack Kilpack who came up yesterday as manager for the Good-nough Monteith concert last night, has a position now with the Title Guaranty and Trust Company of Portland. He is one of O.A.C.'s most devoted followers.

Teacher (in mineralogy class)—Johnnie give me the name of the largest known biamond.

Johnnie—The ace.

—The contract for furnishing the lumber for the woman's building at the college has been awarded by Mr. Spook to the Corvallis saw mill. The original bill calls for $6,500 worth of lumber.

—The dies of the M. E. church will hold another window sale at O. J. Blackledge furniture store Wednesday Nov. 28. Buy your thanksgiving cake and pies of them.

—A negro student when conducting the prayers at one of the great missionary colleges said, "Give us all pure hearts, give us all clean hearts, give us all sweet hearts," to which the entire congregation made response, "Amen."

—There will be German preaching again Sunday at the Presbyterian church at 2 o'clock p. m. The preaching will be conducted by Rev. C. J. Byerlein as usual. All are welcome.

—They had a shooting match at Bellfountain yesterday, with clay pigeons for targets. The prize was a veal, and 11 shooters participated. A quarter of the beef each was won by Chancy Barclay, Frank porter, W. M. Bain, and Ray Starr.

—A. K. Johnson went to Newberg Wednesday. He owns a brick building in that town. He also has there a crop of hops that was sold recently at fifteen but which the buyer now holds not to be up to sample. The adjustment of the latter and to arrange other matters is Mr. Johnson's errand to the Quaker town.

—"Our Reasonable Savior" will be the subject at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning. In the evening there will be special music and a praise service conducted by the woman's missionary society. An interesting part of the program will be an address by Mrs. J. B. Horner on "Phases of mission work seen on a Palestinian trip." Special program on Marcus Whitman at the C. E. meeting 6:30 p. m.

—In a show window at Nolan & Son's store there is a turkey. It is dressed in fine linen, except as to its legs. These appear to be encased in dark muslin. This is not an indication that the firm has branched into the poultry business. It is simply an idea of Mr. Mosher's, a clerk who is the designer and builder of the fowl for an advertisement appropriate for the time. This bird is made up of toweling with a red stripe and red fringe across the ends. It is not turkish toweling, as might be supposed. The whole thing is a credit to Mr. Mosher's genius, and it calls forth much favorable comment from the many passers by who are sure to stop and marvel at its construction.

—Thirty four cars have been shipped by L. L. Brooks this season. Most of it went East for use as seed. Mr. Brooks has advertised widely, and has correspondents in every part of the country. He received a telegram Wednesday ordering two cars of vetch to go to the southern states, for spring delivery. A request by mail wants quotations for a number of cars for spring delivery in the East. A letter from Japan inquires for prices and for the quantity that could be obtained. Oregon has come to be the principal supplier of the world in vetch seed. Other states have trouble in growing it as successfully for seed purposes. Germany is Oregon's principal competitor. Vetch for seed at the prices so far has been a good paying crop.

—Eugene Guard: The Order of Washington will hold an open meeting in the A. O. U. W. hall Thursday evening. J. W. Iogle, of Corvallis, will be the principal speaker.

—Eugene Gurr: A Corvallis man yesterday offered Lee Hoselton $1500 for his cigar store, which he recently opened, but he refused to sell. This speaks well for a place that has been doing business only a few weeks.

—In the probate court: Etta F. Lee has been appointed administratrix of the estate of C. H. Lee, deceased, with a bond fixed at $8,000. Eva I. Miller is the administratrix of the estate of W. F. Miller with a bond of $6,000.

—Albert Moon an Oakland, Calif., high school student who will graduate next spring, has a record of 11.3 3 4 in the pole vault, 21:10 in the broad jump, 6 feet in the high jump, 50 feet in the shot put, 165 feet in the hammer throw and 16 3 5 in the 120 yard hurdles. He is 6 feet tall and in fact a marvel. It is said he may attend the U. of O. next year.

—The Eastside railroad line is restored to an operating basis. The bridge at Jefferson has been replaced by a temporary structure over which trains began to pass yesterday afternoon. The evening train, which has been completely out of joint since the bridge went out, arrived from Albany last night a few minutes after 8 o'clock, and is expected hereafter to be on time.

—The following real estate transfers have been filed for record: H. P. Harris to B. F. Hyland, 20 acres near Albany, $200; B. F. Hyland to Levi Oreu, 23 acres near Albany, $200; W. R. Hardman and wife to Ida Miller, 2 acres west of Bellfountain, $20; A. M. H. Howard and wife to Mr. Ida Miller, 2 acres west of Bellfountain, $50; O. & C. R. R. Co. to Mrs. Ida Miller, 40 acres west of Bellfountain, $101; Sol King to E. E. Smith, 30 acres near Corvallis, $3,000.

—"Our farmers ought to get together and protest against the further payment of fifty cents a ton extra freight because of the canal and locks at Oregon City," was the remark of a farmer on the streets yesterday. And so they ought. They ought to protest and they ought to petition. The granges ought to join in the agitation. Now is the time and this the congress to open the Willamette and free its traffic from paying fifty cents a ton lockage fee. It costs the farmers of the Willamette Valley many a thousand dollars every year.

ARRESTED FOR THEFT.

Sixteen Year old Boy—He Belongs in Benton—Captured in Salem.

Ambrose Cain, aged 16 years a Benton county boy, is in the toils of the law. He was arrested at Salem by Chief of Police Cornelius yesterday, and Sheriff Burnett left this morning to bring him to Corvallis. His offense is the theft of $25 in cash from a trunk in the home of Bird Rickard in Irish Bend. While Mrs. Rickard was absent from home at a neighbors, Cain entered the house, went into a trunk and removed the cash. He went thence to Monroe, and hired a man to bring him to Corvallis. Here he took the train for Salem.

The theft was reported by phone to Sheriff Burnett, and the latter after a little inquiry at once suspected young Cain and as his mother lives in the vicinity of Salem, it was guessed that the boy would go there. Chief of Police Cornelius was notified with the result that yesterday a phone from that officer related that Cain had been captured. After his arrest, the boy admitted the theft, but a search showed that he had but fifteen cents on his person. With the stolen money he had purchased a revolver, a watch, and a pocket knife. He will be brought here this afternoon and it is probable that he will be sent to the reform school. Otherwise he will be tried for his offense under the law, the penalty for which, is one to seven years in the penitentiary, as the charge would undoubtedly be larceny from a dwelling.

After he had accumulated a large amount of whiskey Peterson was arrested as disorderly and then it was discovered that he had out open three valises at the station, and robbing them of their contents had found the check with which he had bunked the saloons.

Chicago, Nov. 21.—The negroes of this city have called a mass meeting for Thursday night to protest against the dismissal of the negro soldiers of the Twenty-fifth regiment, to prevent Tillman's speaking and to discuss the official count of the recent election, the returns of which show that Barnett, colored, supposedly elected judge of the municipal court, was beaten by about 200.

The more violent of the blacks threaten to shoot Tillman. The race agitation is causing the detouring of extra police in quarters where trouble might be expected.

New York, Nov. 21.—The American Sugar Refining Company was found guilty by a jury in the United States circuit court today of accepting rebates amounting to $26,000 from the New York Central railroad. The New York Central was recently found guilty of giving rebates to the American Sugar Refining Company and find $108,000.

Joseph H. Choate, formerly ambassador to Great Britain, in his argument for the defense in today's trial, declared that there was no precedent in American law for such an enormous penalty as the statute against rebating provided. It was necessary, he added, to go back several centuries in English law to find an instance in which a penalty amounting to more than $100,000 had been imposed.
