Always Keeps Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in His House.

"We would not be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is kept on hand continually in our home," says W. W. Kearney, editor of the Independent, Lowry City, Mo. "That is just what every family should do. When kept at hand ready for instant use, a cold may be checked at the outset and cured in much less time than after it has become settled in the system. This remedy is also without a peer for croup in children, and will prevent the attack when given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, which can only be done when the remedy is kept at hand. For sale by Graham & Wortham."

HER FUNERAL TODAY.

After Five Months of Illness—Death of Mrs. Sarah Mecklin.

After an illness of five months, Mrs. Sarah Mecklin died at her home on 8th street, last Sunday evening, aged sixty years, two months and 19 days. Mrs. Mecklin was seized with acute pain on the 4th day of last July and has been battling bravely with Bright's disease since that date. Medicine and care were of little avail and she gradually grew weaker until the end.

Sarah Lewis was born in Alabama in September 1846, and with her father came to Oregon, settling in Corvallis in 1875. In November 1883, she was married to Samuel Mecklin, who was accidentally killed in July 1888.

Mrs. Mecklin is survived by a son Harper Mecklin, a brother James Lewis of this city and two sisters, Mrs. Goldson and Mrs. Haynes of Lane county. Mrs. Mecklin was an ardent student of the Bible and a devout member of the M. E. church South. The funeral occurred from the residence at 10 o'clock this morning, the service being conducted by Rev. Moses. The interment was in Crystal Lake cemetery.

PASSED AWAY.

Well Known O. A. C. Student—Died Near Salem This Morning—Clay Shepard.

Clay Shepard, a graduate of OAC in the class of 1904 and since that time, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at the institution, is dead. The news reached this city by phone this morning from his home near Zena, Polk county. Mr. Shepard was a well known student, having been an active worker in the college Y. M. C. A. He was largely instrumental in the Y. M. C. A. building enterprise at the college. In fact he was the soul of that enterprise and it is because he was seized with illness about a year ago that it has so long stood still.

He died of tuberculosis and it is the belief of those who know him best that he contracted the malady by the exposure and over-work incident in his campaign in the interest of the building. The funeral occurs at the family home at 11 o'clock Thursday. He is one of five brothers notable for their educational attainments and high ideals. Walter won a fellowship at Harvard, traveled two years on it in Europe and is now an instructor at his alma mater. Ray is a student there, Ralph graduated at OAC Robert, a younger brother is at home on the farm.
