COLLEGE MANSION

IS DESTROYED AND FOUR STUDENTS AND THREE FIREMEN ARE BURNED.

Roast Under the Debris—Chapter House Was Beautiful Mansion Overlooking Cayuga Lake. Other News.

Ithaca, N. Y., Dec. 7.—Early this morning the beautiful Chi Psi Fraternity building at Cornell University caught fire and was soon all aflame. Before the fire department could arrive O. L. Schmuick, of Hanover, Pa., had jumped from a third story window and was so severely injured that he died soon after being taken to the infirmary. Three of Ithaca's volunteer firemen were killed while fighting the flames. Three students lie at the infirmary at the point of death. It is not known how many are in the ruins.

The chapter house was a mansion built by Mrs. Jennie McGraw Fiske on the campus overlooking Cayuga Lake, but never occupied by her because of her premature death. It was a beautiful structure of sandstone, handsomely decorated and finished within with marble and mahogany. The walls which were of rubble masonry, collapsed under the flames and high wind, leaving only a heap of ruins.

They were manipulating a hose on the north side of the building when the wall collapsed on them and pinned them to the ground, to slowly roast under the burning debris.

When the firemen department arrived the screams of two men appearing in the windows of the southwest tower, over the main entrance were heard. For some reason the men hesitated to jump, and before they could be reached the tower collapsed and the men were buried beneath the ruins.

The chapter house burned rapidly, and the walls cracked apart in all directions. The fire was so hot that the firemen driven from the southeast side of the building.

Fate had evidently selected a tragic death for young S. W. Grelle, a brother of C. E. Grelle, of Portland, who was killed in the fire that destroyed the chapter house of the Chi Psi fraternity.

Grelle was in a runaway accident with his father four years ago in which his father was instantly killed and the young man himself narrowly escaped death. Grelle, in company with his mother and sister, visited his brother in Portland in the summer of 1904, and made many friends among the younger set. Chester G. Murphy, who is an old Cornell man and a close friend of C. E. Grelle, told of young Grelle this morning. He said:

"Grelle was a freshman at Cornell and was one of the most popular men of his class. He was 'spiked' by nearly every fraternity at the university, and for a long time was undecided as to which one he would join. He finally selected the Chi Psi and was an active member at the time of his death.

"The young man was in Portland two years ago in company with his mother and sister and last year accompanied them to Europe. At that time C. E. Grelle of this city went to New York to see them on their foreign trip. Mr. Grelle left this morning for New York, where he will take charge of his brother's remains.

"The young man's father was killed in a runaway accident at South Orange, New Jersey, and Grelle, himself, narrowly escaped death. The horses ran away and dashed into a tree at the end of the road. The father was killed instantly and the young man was thrown high into a tree where he hung suspended on a limb by his chin. He fell to the ground unharmed.

"Young Grelle was a popular young man. He was well matured for his years and had a pleasing personality. He was 17 years old at the time of his visit to Portland and 19 years at the time of his death. He made many friends in Portland on the occasion of his visit and his death has been a sad blow to them."

Washington, Dec. 7.—The West is unalterably opposed to joint occupancy of public schoolrooms by Japanese or Chinese and our white children," said Governor Chamberlain, today. "We are also against admission of Chinese or Japanese coolies. The present controversy over the Japanese has assumed a phase which calls for application of more common sense than has been manifested in some quarters. The interpretation of treaties rests solely with the courts, and certainly not with the executive branch of the government, through the military as President Roosevelt threatens. "It appears to me that the administration is inconsistent in attempting to force association in the public schools of an inferior race with white children, when here in the District of Columbia there is a system of separate schools for whites and negroes. "Let the president and congress demonstrate here the theory of such association before trying to force objectionable policies on the people of the Pacific Coast."

Goldfield, Nev., Dec. 8.—While the regular force of miners were at work last night in the Hayes-Monnette mine in the famous Mohawk lease, a tunnel was excavated around the heavy partition of the strong-room and 15 sacks of the richest ore valued at $20,000 taken out. The robbery was discovered this morning. The apartments from which this treasure was stolen was formed by a partition of heavy timbers being placed across the deserted drift. To add to the strength of the room strong wedges were inserted between the timbers and the walls of the drift. The robbers removed one of these wedges and in the place of it had been dug a hole entering the vault. The aperture was made large enough for a man to enter and be able to remove the sacks.

The Truett mine is working no shift between the hours of eleven o'clock at night and 7 o'clock in the morning, and it is thought probable that the robbers entered through the shaft of this mine and removed their booty through the same shaft. This robbery is the third of a series of depredations that have been committed on the Mohawk lease. The first of these occurred October 20, when masked men held up and robbed the guards at the Hayes-Monnette mine, securing ore valued at $12,500. The second happened Nov. 8, when the guards at the Frances Mohawk were doped and $20,000 worth of ore was packed away on burros while they slept.

At King's Valley.

The two sections of the Kings Valley and Hoskins Telephone company are two companies now instead of one. Differences over some switches made division necessary. Division was made at Link Allen's lane, the lower section remains the Kings Valley and Hoskins Telephone company, and the upper section will form a new company. It is generally supposed they will pull loose from the old company and build their old line to King's Valley. Uno.

A FUEL FAMINE

A WOMAN BURNS HER BEDSTEDS AND PUTS IN IRON ONES.

Families Are Suffering for the Want of Fuel Which Dealers Are Unable to Obtain—Other News.

Wardner, Idaho, Dec. 7.—The fuel famine has reached an acute stage and many families are suffering. Slippery roads make it almost impossible to gather wood in the hills and the dealers are unable to spare enough to keep fires in the hotels and restaurants.

Miss Maggie Doyle, proprietor of the Ideal Restaurant, has just used up the last of her wooden bedsteads and has replaced them with iron ones, thinking cheaper to buy bedsteads and burn the wooden ones than to close up business. Other boarding houses are even in worse condition, where they have not even bedsteads to burn. Many report the loss of articles of furniture in the effort to keep fire enough to prevent suffering and to get meals.

Dealers hold out no hope for the present, they state they have enough ordered to supply the wants, but cannot get it delivered.

Greenville, Miss., Dec. 7.—Two persons were killed, two seriously wounded and two slightly injured in a fight here today. Felix Homan, a negro hailing from Arkansas, shot and killed Celina Holman, a negroes, in Mrs. Pratt's boarding house for negroes.

Officer P. A. Abercromlin, W. B. Coffey, William Vaughn and Enoch Thompson entered the boarding house to arrest Homan. The negro immediately fired upon the arresting party. The first shot killed Thompson instantly. Another shot struck officer Coffey in the body and he is in a precarious condition. Officer Abercromlin had his right thigh shattered by a bullet. N. O. Wainer, a business man, was struck in the leg by a stray bullet and slightly injured.

The negro, who was shot in the arm, was lodged in jail.

Hillboro, Or., Dec. 8.—Elsie Burnett, the 17-year-old daughter of N. I. Burnett, a well-to-do farmer and hopgrower residing near Greenville, shot and killed herself about 3 o'clock this afternoon at the family home. She was of a bright and cheerful disposition and a few minutes before death was playing and singing at the piano. She left the instrument, went into another room and took a 22-caliber rifle from its place and went out into the back yard.

A shot was fired, but the family paid no particular attention to this, as she frequently indulged in target practice. A short time afterward the girl was found dead with a bullet hole in one of her temples. The family cannot believe that it is a case of suicide, as they aver this is the last thing the young woman would have dreamed of indulging in. They think it was purely accidental. Coroner E. C. Brown will go to the Burnett home in the afternoon.
