—Mrs. Carroll and children left Saturday for Union, where they expect to make a protracted stay.

—Three new girls have appeared at Blodgett. They are at the homes of Abner Woods, Henry Scheele and C. H. Taylor.

—Aunt Maria Allen of Alsea, is out on a visit to her sister, Mrs. B. F. Seeley.

—Miss Margaret McClellan of Roseburg, who has been visiting college friends for the past few days, left Monday for Portland.

—Misses Kate Moore, Mert Harrington, Kate Kelly, Claire Hoggate witnessed the Roseburg High School-Albany High School basketball game Saturday night.

—A return game of basket ball was played at Eugene Saturday evening between OAC team and the Friendly team, the result being a score of 55 to 16 in favor of the College boys. The Friendly did better Saturday than they did here the week before when the score was 63 to 6.

—At the January meeting of the Academic Council of Stanford University the degree of Bachelor of Laws was conferred upon Harold W. Strong. This action of the council is a source of gratification to Mr. Strong and to his friends as well.

—Friday afternoon two teams of Corvallis juveniles crossed bats on the diamond. The teams are named the Beavers and the Christians, and the former walloped the latter to the tune of 16 to 2. A number of the little chaps displayed a skill in handling the ball that is remarkable.

—The basket ball game at the Armory Friday evening between OAC and Roseburg High School girls resulted in a score of 38 to 7 in favor of the locals. There was a large attendance. The Roseburg girls the following evening defeated the Albany team by a score of 6 to 5. Friday next the OAC girls go to Portland where they play the Zeniths, a team of young lady employes of Marshal Wells.

—Mrs. Louise Spaulding, a former resident of Corvallis, died at Stockton Calif., Saturday last at an advanced age. Mrs. Spaulding was the maternal grandmother of Fred Hall, who died at Stockton a few weeks ago. She was the mother of Arthur Spaulding, well remembered here as a newspaper writer and as having been city recorder of Corvallis. She leaves three sons and two daughters, all residents of Stockton. Mrs. Spaulding's husband, her son Arthur and other relatives are buried at Buena Vista, Oregon, but her remains were interred at her California home.

—The college and town boys are warming up pretty well to base ball, and there will be something doing in this line hereabouts this season. The college team of last year will be considerably strengthened by new students who are very handy with the sphere and bat. Walter Kline of the S. L. Kline general merchandise establishment, has organized the town players and they have complete new suits. Saturday afternoon at OAC field the college team and the Kline team played a seven-inning game in which the former won out by a score of 7 to 6. The town team, however, played the better ball. A left-handed collegian toward the close of the game swatted the hallover the grandstand where it was lost for a time sufficient to let in two men on bases and the striker. The boys on the hill require better organization and a little closer attention to business in the game.

—Between halves at the OAC Roseburg game Friday evening Manager Mark McCallister walked out to the center of the hall with a bundle of sweaters upon his arm and after a brief address called upon members of the season's football team to come forward and receive the usual token of their accomplishments upon the gridiron. The sweaters this year are of navy blue with the OAC monogram worked upon the front. In the judgment of the Athletic Association of the college the following named students were entitled to monogram sweaters: James Dobbin, Henry Shannon, Frank Pendergrass, Charles Barber, Walter Gagnon, Mar Hannan, Harold Looney, Carl Wolf, Waldo Finn, Fred Darby, S. L. Bennett, C. C. Clark, Carl Stebinger, as yell leader, Ralph Cady, E. W. P. Harding, Philip Cherry.

—Miss Bertha Davis is visiting in Independence.

—Mrs. Benson, of Klamath Falls accompanied by a daughter, is here on a visit to her son at OAC.

—Good weather has put the valley roads in almost as good condition as in summer.

—B. W. Johnson has purchased the residence property of Mrs. Etta Lee, and with Mrs. Johnson expects to occupy it soon.

—Miss Mabel Withycombe is visiting friends at Jefferson and Salem.

—August Hodes' condition is much improved, and he expects to be at his place of business in a few days.

—Mrs. Linnie Linville of Portland, and son Lenger, arrived Friday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lenger.

—Grange meeting, Saturday, at 2 o'clock, Administration building. An interesting program has been prepared.

—W. R. Hall was in town Sunday, thinking it probable that the remains of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Spaulding, might be taken via Corvallis to Buena Vista for interment.

—John Henderson, of Lane county, is on his way home with a band of 50 head of stock cattle purchased in Benton. He made his purchase from Billy Gellatly and Gene Jackson.

—Mrs. M. L. Earnest and daughter, Lillian, expect to start tomorrow for their Five Rivers home to spend the coming summer. Other members of the family will remain in Corvallis for a time.

—The granite columns which are to be placed at the main entrance of the new bank building, arrived yesterday. There are two of them, the lower end of each being 18 inches in diameter and 15 inches at the top. They came all the way from the state of Maine. These columns are to rest upon granite blocks more or less ornamented.

—A number of friends joined Saturday night in celebrating the natal day of Dr. Cathey and Mrs. Cornutt at the Cathey home in this city Saturday evening.

—T. V. Vidito is having constructed on the premises recently purchased from J. W. Foster, an up-to-date barn 18 by 18 feet in size. M. L. Earnest has the contract of erecting the structure.

—W. F. Gay and family have arrived from Tipton, Iowa, and are settled temporarily in one of the Wuestefeld houses. Mr. Gay may buy property in town. He is an interesting gentleman and a welcome addition to our population.

—The 18 months old child of Ole Paulson, who last fall purchased the S. A. Moore place, near town, died of pneumonia last Saturday. Rev. Byerline, of the Lutheran church, conducted the funeral services at the family home and interment occurred at I. O. O. F. cemetery Monday forenoon.

—Father Burri of McMinnville, Father Lane of Albany, and Father Datin of Brooks, and his niece, Miss Claire Courtois, are visiting Father Springer, and are assisting with the Forty Hours devotion. Father Datin and Miss Sheehy will sing again this evening, and Father Lane will speak. The devotion has been well attended. All are invited to attend.

—When a citizen or two enter the alley back of Horning's store and after traveling south a short distance turn east and disappear, where are they going? And when they come back after a few minutes what have they got? Its all so open and so plain that even small boys around town know what the processions means when it is headed south, and what it has got in its pocket when it is steering north.

—Some person on Saturday night pulled up and carried away five young walnut trees which Taylor Porter planted two years ago along the walk about his premises on Second and Adams. About the only adequate punishment for a man who would commit such an act as this is suggested by the old-fashioned hell, and it is a reminder that there ought to be such a place if there isn't.

—Clarence M. Vidito has disposed of his barber shop to R. L. Hathaway, and the purchaser will take possession about the first of March. David Fendall a young man who has attained a high position in the profession, and who has been with Mr. Vidito for some time, will, however, have the management of the business. Mr. and Mrs. Vidito expect to go to Newport early next month and identify themselves with the Bay View Hotel in which they are interested with C. C. Chipman.

LOWER INSURANCE RATES.

Reductions to be Made on Account of Mountain Water System.

Corvallis is to have large reductions in insurance rates. The 25 per cent advance that went into effect last October as a result of the great losses sustained by the companies in the California earthquake has been annulled and rebate on premiums will be made. The return to the old rate is effective on the first of last month, and the return of premiums will be made beginning with that date. Premiums under the advanced rate will only be effective from October to January 1st. The old rates are to go into effect throughout the Northwest.

In addition to the foregoing, Corvallis is to have a large reduction by reason of the mountain water system. Mr. Stone, head of the Pacific Board of Underwriters, has announced to agents here that the new rate will go into effect in about 30 days, and the reductions will be a surprise to the people of Corvallis. Nobody here knows of course, what the reductions will be, but that they will be extremely satisfactory to Corvallisites seems assured from letters written here by Mr. Stone.

The Price Figured.

A man from the country, and who was evidently thirsting for booze, approached a Corvallis man who had been convicted of bootlegging and asked to be accommodated with a quart.

"How much will you pay?" inquired the prospective seller. The thirsty man's eyes brightened from anticipation of a good long pull at a bottle which he deemed almost within his grasp, and named a dollar and a half, expecting that the price would fetch the goods without delay.

"Oh," replied the ex-vender of illicit stimulants, "I guess you are not very dry. The matter of a couple of pints of whiskey a little while ago cost me $150."

The information was given with such derision and evident decision that the dry man, notwithstanding attendant disappointment, decided that it wasn't worth while to press his purpose.
