land, attended the Armory hop, Saturday evening.

-Ray M. Walker, of Independence, spent Sunday with Corva lis friends.

-Mrs. Nolson and daughter and Miss Adele Goff of Alany, and the Armory hop.

-The dwelling house recently bought by C. I. Starr, west of Dr. Pernot's home, has been moved to the east side of the lots on which it is located, and is to have a new rear and other improvements and embellishments. It is to be occupied by Mr. Starr and family. Later on, an ther dwelling may be erected on the west side of the site.

-Salem Statesman: There is not general estisfaction with the Johnson road law passed at this session, and Mrs. Clera H. Waldo was in the city vesterday as a representative of the Patrons of Husbandry, with some notion of urging the governor to veto it. The bill was not satisfactory to all the members who voted for it, but it was the best that could be obtained this year and was accepted as a compromise. This bill has some good features and others which are not so good, but taken altogether it would probably illuminate their surroundings to the fleet, it is pointed out, will be far be the means of getting some permanent roads, though with a beavy outlay of state money.

-The short arm jab in the solar plexus by Representative Carter of Benton, says the Oregonian, was enough to put to sleep the Booth bill which had passed the senate to give the state game warden the privilege of charging 50 cents on each pheasant shipped out of the state. The bill elso provided for smaller charges on other bird. mentioned. Carter said that a number of persons are building up a good business in the breeding of pheasants and that this bill would destroy this new industry. His motion to indefinitely postpone was carrried without a dissenting vote. The bill provided a charge of fifty cents on each pheasant, 25 on each quail and $1 on each deer shipped out of the state.

- Governor Chamberlain could not have made a better selection from his party, nor indeed from any party, for the office of commissioner of the supreme court than Hon. Woodson T. Slater of this city, says the Salem Statesman. He is a gentleman of fine legal and general attainments, conscientious, bonest and careful in all his dealings and will render a fair judgment in any matter coming before him. Hon. William R. King of Malheur county, the other appointee, is also a good and worthy gentleman, an ines stigable worker and is recognized as fair-minded and entirely just. Mr. Slater is a son of Hon. James H. Slater, a former United States senator from this state and has never held office except as deputy state treasurer under his father-in-law, George W. Webb, in 1887-90. H-has practiced law here several yea s in partnership with Tilmon Ford and W. M. Kaiser. Mr. King was a member of the senate in 1895-7 and was a candidate for governor against T. T. Geer in 1898.

THEIR FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY.

Golden Wedding of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Seely-A Reunion.

Sunday was a gala day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Seely. who reside near the C. & E. depot. It was a celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding. It had been planned to have a reunion of descendants and other relatives of the principals at a date previous to Sunday, but it was not source of greater happiness to all, but there were incidents which heightened the pleasure of the time. Early in the afternoon a magnificent dinner was served and partaken of by four generations, extending from Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Seely to the children of Mr. and Mrs. Fred

A drydock, the largest in the world, is to be constructed at Hunters Point, on San Francisco's Bay. It will accommodate two battle ships at one time when completed.

The first steps toward the formation of a formidable Pacific fleet will be taken when the battleships Indiana and Iowa are sent to the coast. The e two ships will form the nucleus of the Pacific battle ship squadron, which will be further strengthened by the addition of the new battle ship Nebraska, now nearly completed at Seattle, and the battle ships Wisconsin and Oregon, which are now being extensively overhauled at the Puget Sound Navy Yard. These five battle ships will be reinforced during the next few months by two more from the Atlantic.

It is noted, however, that of the vessels named, only the Nebraeka is a modern, up-to-date warship. The Indiana is a sister ship of the Oregon. The Iowa is only a year younger thae the Indians. The Wisconsin was built in 1898

It is said to be the policy of the navy department to unite the Asiatic fleet and the Pacific squadron into one great fleet, its component vessels to be interchangable and all under the command of one of the three vice-admirals which it is thought congress will authorize at an early date.
