

Corvallis Times

CORVALLIS, OREGON, FRIDAY EVENING, MAR. 1, 1907

If Over-Speculative.

Predictions by railroad magnates of hard times ahead are familiar topics in the dispatches of late.

As the railroad magnates prophesy, there is real danger in that the proletariat may become too aggressive and real harm come to the railroad business.

What's the Use.

The vials of wrath that are being poured out on the late legislature eclipse all past records.

A tax commission bill proposed to raise the assessable valuation of railroads in the state from about $10,000,000 to $70,000,000.

The governor only had five days, the legislature, 40. In view of the small remnant now left, what might have happened if his session had lasted as long as the legislature's?

After a little while, it will be as easy for a camel to enter the eye of a needle as for a Benton county man to break into the Oregon state senate.

It was her pose as Beauty and the Beast that Jerome offered in court as evidence against Evelyn Nesbit Thaw. What the jury and all the country is seeing, however, is the same picture with Evelyn as the one and Jerome as the other and it is not Jerome that is the beauty.

For 40 days and 40 nights the legislators legislated, and they looked at their work and said, "Behold, it is good!" and behold it wasn't long till a whole lot of it had got vaccinated.

There are doubtless members of the late legislature who are convinced that the governor is affected with a "passing brain storm."

FARMERS call at the seed store, have a friendly talk, and look over the different kinds of seed, red clover, alsike, alfalfa, vetch, speltz, beardless barley, rape, rye grasses, and artichokes.

TOOK HIS OWN LIFE.

Neighbors Found his Body in the Barn—Illness the Cause—Alfred Denny.

Alfred Denny, residing five or six miles north of Corvallis on the Mountain View road, committed suicide yesterday morning, by hanging himself in the barn at his home.

The deed of self-destruction was consummated about five o'clock in the morning. At that hour Denny arose and left the house.

The general supposition is that mental troubles figured in the act. Denny had been unwell for a month or two, and it is the statement of neighbors that he acted strangely at times.

He was accounted a good citizen and an excellent neighbor. He was also indebted a similar amount on a farm that he still owns in Iowa.

MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG AND SICK WOMEN WELL.

Forty years ago, Dr. Pierce searched Nature's laboratory for a remedy with which to support the ignorant and vicious methods of treatment with alcoholic stimulants, then in vogue, and still too commonly prescribed and advised for women's peculiar ailments.

Nature abounds with most efficient remedies, and in Lady's Slipper root, Black Cohosh root, Unicorn root, Blue Cohosh root and Golden Seal root, Dr. Pierce found medicinal properties, which when extracted and preserved by the use of chemically pure glycerine, have proven most potent in making weak women strong and sick women well.

"I was suffering with nervous headache, pains in the back and dizziness, so that at times I had to lie down for hours before I could raise my head."

One of the principal uses of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the preparation of profuse mothers for the time of trial and danger that comes when a child is born. The "Prescription" is strengthening and invigorating and lessens pain and danger. It insures the perfect well-being and the perfect health of both mother and child.

Don't Be Hoodwinked, hoodooed, grover-persuaded into accepting a substitute for the Original Little Liver Pills, first put up by old Dr. R. V. Pierce, over 40 years ago, and called Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.
