Third Term Talk.

UNIVERSAL ENDORSEMENT BY OREGON REPUBLICANS PROPOSED.

Anna T. Jeanes Gives a Million for Southern Negro Schools—Beresford's Colored Wife Wants Big Share of His Estate—Other News.

Portland, April 25.—Last evening's Portland Journal presents this view of the third term idea:

Letters received by prominent Oregon Republicans from men high in the party in Washington and New York indicate that Theodore Roosevelt may yet be a candidate for the Republican nomination for president and may accept the nomination for the office when the national convention meets. A National-wide plan is now said to be in operation for the purpose of creating public sentiment and making it in such form that the candidacy of Roosevelt will dominate the convention and make his nomination certain.

These letters put the proposal in a politic manner, and advise that now is a good time for Oregon to get into the band wagon before the procession starts, thus fixing the people of the state fast and hard in the good graces of the Republican nominee and present president. It is pointed out that public sentiment throughout the east is rapidly crystallizing into a universal demand for Roosevelt's re-nomination.

The prediction is made that when the convention is called to order this insistent voice will reach such irresistible volume that President Roosevelt will be compelled to lay aside his scruples and allow himself to be forced into the place at the head of the ticket.

It is then suggested that since this condition prevails it would be the best thing possible for Oregon if it would take the lead and come out for the re-nomination of Roosevelt, thereby allowing the people of the east to hear the echo of their sentiments in the voice of the west.

This, it is contended, would place the state high in the council of the next administration and give Oregon requests close attention for the next four years more.

Already the hoodoo expression "third term" is being swept aside by the adoption of the term, "second elective term." The old precedent is to be buried under the argument that the people of the United States have elected Roosevelt to the presidency but once; that should he receive the nomination and be elected, he would have been given the office but twice through the direct vote of the people.

Portland men who have received the letters have begun to look around and already see many signs pointing to the existence of the plan outlined for the coming battle. The absolute disinclination of Mr. Roosevelt to accept the nomination as vice president and his subsequent acceptance is remembered.

The present lively contest between Secretary Taft and Senator Foraker in Ohio is argued to be of the president's engineering, and the result of it is expected to be so much friction that the Roosevelt leaders will decide Taft to be out of the race.

Senator Bourne went to Washington pledged in his platform for a second elective term for Roosevelt. His sudden rise into the friendship of the president is taken to be an indication that the idea of another four years is not foreign to the presidential mind.

Portland Republicans are falling into line with the plan of campaign and already talk is being heard of universal endorsement by the various Republican organizations of the state pledging the support of the party to the third term idea. The "second elective term" advice has fallen in fertile soil here.

Philadelphia, April 23.—A gift of $1,000,000 for the establishment of a fund for rudimentary schools for Southern negroes was announced here tonight. The donor is Miss Anna T. Jeanes, a Quaker of this city.

Booker T. Washington, head of the Tuskegee Institute and Hollis Burke Frisell, president of the Hampton Normal Industrial Institute, are named as trustees of the fund, but neither of the institutions they represent will share in the gift. The income of the million dollars is to be used for the sole purpose of assisting in the "Southern United States community, country and rural schools for the great class of negroes to whom the small rural and community schools are alone available."

Mr. Washington and Mr. Frisell are empowered to appoint a board of trustees in connection with the fund. The Pennsylvania Company for insurance on lives and granting annuities of this city will act as fiscal agents for the trustees.

Miss Jeanes, the donor, is about 80 years of age and comes from an old and wealthy family that has been prominent for more than a century in the Society of Friends. She has long been interested in the welfare of the negro and has been a contributor to the institutes for education.

El Paso, Tex., April 23. Creditors of the estate of the late Lord D. J. Beresford, who was killed in a train wreck in North Dakota December 24, 1906, leaving a very large estate, have filed an application in the District Court here for the appointment of an administrator and a probate of the will.

Among the plaintiffs is Flora Wolff, the negress who claims to have been the common law wife of Beresford and to whom he willed $10,000. The others are persons to whom Beresford was indebted, whose claims a New York lawyer, representing the Beresfords, attempted to discount. The estate is valued at over $1,000,000 and consists of lands and cattle in Mexico and Canada. After bequeathing $10,000 to Flora Wolff, the will left remainder of the property to Beresford's two brothers. The Wolff woman refused to accept the amount left her, claiming a wife's share under the laws of Mexico.

Admiral Lord Beresford, when here some weeks ago, failed to reach a compromise with Flora Wolff and left the other claims to be adjusted by his attorney in New York.

Chicago, April 23.—A stupendous railroad project involving the construction of a four-track submarine tunnel 22 miles long, connecting what is to be the largest port on the great lakes at Gary, Indiana, and the vast subway system which E. H. Harriman proposes to bore beneath Chicago to connect all railroad lines came to light tonight. Back of the plans which have progressed so far that even the most optimistic are staggered, are the railroad and lake navigation interests that have long been negotiating for a sight for deep water dockage privileges between Twelfth and Fifty-fifth streets.

Not until the backers of the project realized that their last hope of obtaining a site for these deep water docks was about to be dealt a death blow by the passage of the Park bill in the Legislature did the promoters of the counter project consent to remove the cloud of secrecy from their maneuvers.

At Gary, Ind., the site of the greatest works of the United States Steel Corporation, the railroad and navigation companies asserts, a freight and passenger terminal, displacing any port on the Great Lakes will be established. From this terminal, which will be utilized as a clearing-house for east and westbound lake and rail traffic, will be constructed a four-track tunnel beneath the waters of Lake Michigan that will communicate with the projected Harriman subway at Twelfth street. Through the agency of this subway the tunnel will have access to the railroad yards of every trunk line railroad entering Chicago.

Pekin, April 23.—Lord Li Ching Fang, the adopted son of the late Viceroy Li Hung Chang, has been appointed Chinese Minister to London. The new Minister is very wealthy. He was formerly Minister to Japan and was the second plenipotentiary of China at the time of the peace negotiations after the war between China and Japan.
