—Wells, Fargo & Co.'s express office will hereafter open for business at seven a. m. and close at 6:30 p. m. The hours have formerly been from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m.

The annual meeting of the East Willamette Association of Congregational churches and ministers began its sessions in this city this afternoon. Adjournment occurs tomorrow evening. Among the delegates from abroad who appear on the programme are Rev. E. S. Bollinger and Rev. H. N. Smith, Portland; Rev. P. S. Knight, Rev. F. E. Dell, Salem; Rev. E. F. Green, Ashland; Rev. E. C. Oakley, Oregon City and Rev. H. Gilpatrick, Hillsboro, and Mrs. R. J. Hendricks of Salem.

—Miss Harriet Sheasgreen for more than seven years a part of the TIMES' force has resigned to accept a position in Portland. She left Sunday to take up her new duties, which are in the telephone employ of Crane & Co. Besides, being one of the swiftest composers in Oregon, Miss Sheasgreen is a young lady of very high character and notable social qualities, and there are many Corvallis friends who regret her departure.

—The creamery business of late conducted by Guy Seely, B. B. Arnold and John Crisson has been sold to the Hazelwood company of Portland. Mr. Crisson remains in the employ as manager of the milk route, Guy Seely in charge of the plant and Mr. Arnold goes to Portland to become an engineer in the Hazelwood works.

—S. N. Wilkins left yesterday after an over Sunday visit in Corvallis. Besides the Corvallis establishment, Mr. Wilkins is in the undertaking business at Vancouver. The two establishments in that city have been combined into one, by a corporation of which Mr. Wilkins is the president. A building of modern appointments is being erected for the business. It is to be a three story structure, and will be one of the finest of its kind in the Northwest.

—“A Dynamite Plot” at the Opera House May 1st. For Village Improvement.

—Mrs. D. V. Walker, of Portland arrived yesterday for a few days' visit with her parents.

—J. M. Nolan leaves for Ireland Thursday. He sails from New York the 15th.

—Clay Gilbert, clerk in Graham & Well's drug store has built an addition to the Temple of Justice, which he recently purchased, and is shortly to occupy it with his family.

—Miss Cecil Irwin, who has been chief operator in the Independent telephone office has resigned. The two Miss Dingee are also leaving the employ. Their resignations take effect tomorrow.

The initial meeting of the skating club occurs tonight. The rink has been chartered from 9:30 to 11:30.

—The Sorosis girls are to entertain Saturday evening. The program includes dancing.

—Bush Davis has arrived from Portland and is at the family home. He returns to Portland tomorrow.

—W. A. Wells has bought the south four lots in the Marshall Miller block that was formerly the site of the Benton County lumber yard. The deed says the price was $5, but that is not true.

—OAC baseball men won a decisive victory over the Willamette University team on the college field Saturday. The score being 12 to 0. Looney pitched the game and received many compliments on his work, as did Wolff who caught. There was some change in the OAC lineup, the position being, Looney, pitcher, Wolff, catcher, Crews, short, Beattie, first, Swann, second, Murray and Jones, third, Todd, left, Moore, center and Bilyeu right. The summary of the game is, struck out, Looney 11, McDowell five, bases on balls, Looney, four, McDowell, 0, stolen bases, OAC, 16, Willamette, 1; errors OAC 3, Willamette 6, three base hits, Bilyeu, one. The team plays Chemawa next Saturday on OAC field and rumor is that Sam Morris and other Chemawa notables of former days will be in the lineup.

—Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Davis and son, Harry, arrived yesterday afternoon from Los Angeles.

—Mrs. Wm. Crees is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Grosbeck, in Portland this week.

—The farce and entertainment to be given in the Opera House tomorrow night for the Village improvement Society has been postponed until Friday evening, May 10.

—Principal Holmes of the public schools has accepted a position as bookkeeper in a saw mill at Ostrander, Washington, and leaves in June to enter upon his duties. He will retire from the teaching business and a new principal will be elected for Corvallis.

—A group picture of the Kline baseball team of last season appears in Spaulding's official baseball guide, in which are all the big league and amateur teams of the country. The Kline baseball team defeated the Rock Hill team in a game on the college field last Saturday. The score was 3 to 0.

The King boarding house property on the southwest corner of the block east across the street from the court house has been sold to S. L. Kline of this city for $2,000. Trs. Samuel King who has been in Portland for medical treatment for several months, ever since the Silver Thaw, is not materially improved. It is understood that the family will take up a permanent residence in Portland as the result of the sale.

—Charles Blakeslee, an oldtime Corvallis resident, and a highly esteemed citizen left yesterday with his family for Oregon City, which is to be their future home. His laundry in this city he recently sold to Ed Strange, and his residence property has been purchased by Prof. Covell. Mr. Blakeslee has bought a steam laundry at Oregon City, of which he assumed possession yesterday morning, and which he will hereafter operate. Many friends regret the departure of Mr. Blakeslee and family.

—The sale of the Corvallis saw mill is announced. It has passed into the hands of a company of which the incorporators are L. B. Menefee, Houston, Texas; Guy M. Standifer, Portland; and Percy Allen Portland. T. H. Williams, of Houston, Texas, who arrives Thursday, is to be manager and James Standifer of Houston, is to be bookkeeper. There are to be no other changes in the force. The sale includes 2,000 acres timber land. The capital stock is 75,000. The new owners are men of high business standing and will add greatly to the importance of the industry.

—A number of extreme interest on the program at the oratorical contest in the Armory Saturday night was a double quartette of male voices, consisting of John Fulton and A. H. Stone, first tenors, Prof. Bradley and M. H. Bauer, second tenors, John Allen and F. S. McLouth, first basses and B. W. Johnson and Arthur Boquet second basses. The music was sung without instrumental accompaniment and with such excellent effect that there was a strong recall. The organization is in regular practice and few towns can muster so excellent an array of voices.

—It has leaked out that considerable sums of money are ready to be invested in brick structures on Main street if desirable building sites can be obtained. That owners of lots vacant and occupied by old wooden buildings have been approached is known, but in all cases the prices asked are said to have been too high; so high in fact that brick buildings put on them would not pay interest. This is said to have upset plans for the present. Prices go up and prices go down, and what obtains today may be more than will obtain tomorrow. The Main street would make great strides ahead this summer if building sites could be obtained at reasonable figures.

—A feature of the oratorical contest Saturday night was the first appearance of the college orchestra. The organization composed of students has been practicing since January, when it was organized by Prof. McReynolds, by whom it has since been instructed. Two numbers on the program were rendered very acceptably to the audience, one of them being stormily endorsed. The organization is a very interesting addition to the musical phase of the college enterprises and ought to be perpetuated. Its appearance at college functions gives it a finish not otherwise to be attained. The instrumentation is as follows: Violins, Strue, McGinnis, Donaldson, Jette, Johnson, Rosenstein, Propst, Adams, Viola, Marrs, Cornets, Wilkins, Cole, Trombone, Holms, Horn, Reid, Bass, Wicks, Clarionette, Utzinger, Harlan, Cello, Stebbinger, Ed Saxophone, McLaughlin, Drums, Loselle, Piano, Mrs. Wicks.

MUSICAL COMEDY.

Coming to the Opera House.

The first real musical comedy ever given in Corvallis will be at the Opera House on Tuesday May 7th, when the famous comedians Murray & Mack will present the big musical play “Around the town.” It is big because it contains the best Irish team of singing and dancing comedians in the country, and they are supported by an excellent cast of chorus principals. Forty people are carried for the production, and most of them are girls. Patrons here will see exactly the same performance as is to be given at the Heilig theatre in Portland, and for less money.

Annual Picnic.

The Suver Camp of M. W. A. will give their 7th annual picnic at Ridder's grove 2 1/2 miles south of Suver May 25.
