S. L. KLINE

The People's Store. Established 1864.

—Commencement at the college occurs June 12th.

—Mrs. J. M. Nolan accompanied her husband as far as Portland on his European trip.

—Mrs. W. D. DeVarney arrived yesterday to assume charge of the Independent Telephone office for an indefinite period.

—The Albany skating rink has closed for the season and a crowd of Albanyites went last night for a skate at the Eugene rink.

—Miss Marguerite Looney, of Salem, is a guest at the home of Miss Mary Barclay.

—Miss Gertrude Barclay arrived Tuesday from a two weeks' visit at the W. O. Heckert home in Eugene.

—Victor Moses is adding a gallery to supply the added room required for his spring stock.

—Friend—Is your husband a quiet man? Mrs. Wise—Is he? Why, he goes into a comatose condition every time I ask him for a dollar!

—Francis J. Heney states that he will place Binger Hermann in an Oregon jail. When it is remembered how many times that Heney has kept his word it looks rather serious for Binger.

—Dr. Ostein, professor of mathematics, in the state agricultural college of Utah, was in town for a few hours yesterday. He left last night for San Francisco.

—Mr. and Mrs. Percy Young, Miss Emma Sox and Mr. Gibson came over from Albany yesterday morning in Mr. Young's new touring car. After a spin about the college campus they left for the return trip.

—In the probate court J. W. Hady, administrator of the Albert Denny estate, has been authorized to sell the personal property belonging to the estate at private sale. In the estate of James P. McBee the executrix has been ordered to pay the widow $2500 and $150 for maintenance of herself and children for the ensuing year.

—Albany Democrat: E. H. Rhodes authorizes the Democrat to state that if the property owners adjoining his 100 square feet at the corner of First and Ferry streets will give him a bonus of $2,000 he will erect a modern hotel at the cost of $40,000, to be known as the Fairmount, a fine three-story building, up-to-date, in its construction, a building that would double the value of property around that corner.

—Mr. Williams arrived last night from Houston, Texas, and has assumed charge of the saw mill of which he is the general manager. T. M. Standifer of the same place, has also arrived and taken charge of the books of the establishment. The new owners have put added capital into the enterprise, and will develop and widen its operations.

—Ed Strong, who has retired as owner of the Corvallis saw mill, is to leave tomorrow for Polk county, where he is the owner of a hardwood mill. His stay there, however, will not be permanent, and he will return to Corvallis later. Whether he will remain here or invest elsewhere, has not yet been determined.

—The O. A. C. debating team meets the Washington State College team in a discussion of the merits of the Monroe Doctrine, Monday night. The O. A. C. men defend the policy and the Pullman debaters are to argue for its abandonment. The local debaters are, Mark Weatherford, leader; C. C. Clark and Mr. Selleck. They leave for Pullman Sunday.

—Two days of M. C. A. Building Fund canvass in Corvallis amounted to over $450. Many people contributed gladly. A large number of others wanted time to think and consider giving to the project. Work will be continued in Corvallis and in other places. We must complete the building this summer. All are becoming more hopeful with the prospects.

—B. E. Jones was in town Wednesday, en route from Toledo to his home at Independence. In passing through Corvallis recently, he had the misfortune to lose his suit case. He left it near the door of the Occidental and some one, intentionally or otherwise, walked off with it. All efforts made since, have failed to recover it. A $50 reward is offered for return of papers that were contained in it, the notice of which appears in another column of the Times. The papers are of no value whatever to any one else, but are of much importance to Mr. Jones. The suit case was plainly marked with the name and address of Mr. Jones and the person who has it ought to find no difficulty in discovering the owner. Perhaps he will, now that there is $50 to be made by return of the papers.

Annual Picnic.
The Saver Camp of M. W. A. will give their 7th annual picnic at Ridder's grove 2 1/2 miles south of Saver May 25

"Too Much Soda in the Biscuit" at the Opera House, Friday, May 17th.

—Clarence Vidito, who with Clarence Chipman is running the Bay View House at Newport, was in town yesterday looking for help for his establishment. The summer travel has already begun and the house is well filled.

—John Huffman, of Portland, is in town on a brief visit to old scenes. He returns to the metropolis Sunday. Mrs. Huffman has been in the country a week. Mr. Huffman conducts an architect office in the city.

—The inside finishing work is in progress on the Johnson bank building. The plasterers are now at work on the small room in the rear of the banking department. Senator Johnson expects the building to be ready for occupancy by June 10th.

—Sunday services at the Congregational church will be as follows: 10, Sunday school; 11, preaching by the pastor, A. W. Monosmith, topic: "Christ's Estimate of the Individual." 7 Christian Endeavor, 8, evening service subject: "Essentials of Discipleship."

—Floyd Bogue, of this city, who went with Engineer Miller to Lewiston to build a sewer system is in charge of a party of engineers, laying out a town site on Puget Sound. Lots in the place are already selling at $300 to $1,000. The name of the new city is Secoma. Work on the Lewiston sewer system is temporarily suspended, pending adjustment of financial arrangements.

—About the 15th of the current month, the Times will vacate the quarters that have housed the establishment ever since the Fisher brick was built, and occupy the room on Main street lately vacated by the Bell telephone office. It is thought that with the office on the ground floor subscribers would find it easier to pay subscription. Some of them seem not to like to climb a stairway.

"A Dynamite Plot" at the Opera House May 1st. For Village Improvement.

—The accounts of Ed Strong, late proprietor of the Corvallis saw mill have been placed in the hands of J. B. Irvine for collection.

—Arrangements are being made to run an excursion from Albany to witness the performance of Murray & Mack at the Corvallis Opera House next Tuesday night. This attraction does not appear in Albany. It only plays in three towns in Oregon south of Portland, and Corvallis is fortunate enough to be one of them.

—There were nine rainy days in the month of April, during which 2.98 inches of rain fell. The greatest in 24 hours was .84 inches on the 6th. There were 17 clear days, six part cloudy and seven cloudy. On the 10th there was a heavy frost with temperature down to 39, and from the 25 down to the 30 inclusive there were light frosts with temperature down to 35. The highest temperature was 80 on the 20th and 21st, and the lowest 32 on the 10th. The total rainfall for the period beginning September 1st and ending April 30th was 43 inches.

—Officials of the C. & E. inspected the route of the proposed ex $0.1 of the track from Yaquina to Newport the other day, but no announcement has been made of a purpose to push the line through this season. It is said that with a sufficient force the job could be done in sixty days. Nothing would do so much to popularize Newport as a summer resort. The town could afford to give the company a good bonus.

—Ernest Lane, the pink domino boy who burglarized in Portland gets 15 years in the penitentiary. He was sentenced Wednesday by Judge Cleland's court after pleading guilty. An appeal was made by his attorney for clemency, but no mercy was shown. The boy's mother stood beside him during the attorney's plea, and when reference was made to her, tears streamed down the boy's cheeks. When sentence was pronounced, she fell in a faint on the floor of the court room. Considering Lane's effort while at OAC to lead an honest life, the sentence seems severe.
