

—Dr. and Mrs. Harper are to spend Sunday with Albany friends.

—Miss Helen Crawford went to Albany Wednesday to attend the funeral of a friend.

—Rev. Handsaker went to Silverton yesterday, and preached last night at a rally held in a church newly dedicated in that town last Sunday.

—Rev. C. L. McCausland will preach at the M. E. church, South next Sunday, this being the time for the third quarterly conference.

—Susy—I say Jennie, what's a naturalist?

Jennie—I'm not sure. A man who catches gnats, isn't it?

—After a visit of several weeks at the Withycombe home Miss Florence Tongue left yesterday for Jefferson where she will visit friends before returning to her home at Hillsboro.

—A number of Albany people attended the Barnacle skating party last night. Among them were Mr. DeVarney, Mr. and Mrs. Woodruff and Miss Sox.

—“Do you think they approved of my sermon?” asked the newly appointed rector, hopeful that he had made a good impression.

“Yes, I think so, replied his wife.” they were all nodding.”

—Preaching at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening by the pastor Rev. J. R. N. Bell. Morning topic “The Transfiguration and Epiphany” The evening topic “The Millionaire” All made welcome.

The services in the congregational church next Sunday will be as follows: 10 a. m. Sunday school, 11 a. m. preaching by the pastor, Albert W. Monosmith. Topic, “Conditions for Growth” 7 p. m. Christian endeavor; 8 p. m. evening subject “To Know Christ.”

—More than usual local interest is manifest in the track meet to take place on the O. A. C. field next Monday afternoon between the Washington State College and O. A. C. The Oregon men seem to have a little the best of it on paper, but paper battles do not always come out according to schedule. The extreme closeness of some of the events, notably the mile run in which the two best men in the Northwest will try conclusions, and will make the meet extremely interesting.

Mongolian type at a height of 10,000 feet growing rye, wheat, oats and barley, and when at 12,000 feet, they saw a village where human beings were living in huts with white goats, fowls, marmots and strange animals. About 14,000 feet the Workmans saw only a species of partridge. The doctor said above 15,000 feet there was practically no life.

Oregon City, Or., May 7.—After more than 52 years' absence from the metropolis of the United States, George R. H. Miller will leave on Thursday of this week for New York City, to remain for two months, visiting his sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Hyde, of 245 Warwick street, Brooklyn. Mr. Miller came here long ago, and is one of the best known of Oregon pioneers, being an Indian war veteran of 1856-7.

Mr. Miller will be heard from in the East as an Oregon booster. He will take with him a box of prime Oregon apples, a box of Oregon pines, some canned salmon and about 10 pounds of the virgin soil of the state from Falls View. He will procure some roots of Oregon grape, and says that his sister will plant the sprigs of the state flower soil of the state. Mr. Miller will also take some of the board of trade Clackamas county pamphlets and panoramic views of Oregon City and vicinity.

G. R. H. Miller was five times a member of the Oregon City council. He took a great deal of interest in the purchase of the present water system by the city and for many years was the only man in town who built houses to rent. He anticipates considerable pleasure from his trip.

Boise, Idaho, May 8.—Judge Fremont Wood today denied the motion of counsel for Haywood, accused of complicity in the murder of Governor Steunenberg, for a bill of particulars. The plea was elaborate, but the court held that application should have been made before the trial date was set or the defendant had made a plea of no guilty. The defense took an exception, which the court recorded. The trial will proceed Thursday with the selection of a jury.

None of the attorneys on either side will comment upon the judge's decision, which, while it is an initial victory for the prosecution, had been forecasted and was expected.

A. evidence of how the Boise people view the trial, a local business man who was a venireman on the panel and has applied to be excused from serving, explained to the court that he is a member of a gun team which is scheduled to participate in a shooting match beginning Thursday. This excuse hardly suited Judge Wood, but the attorneys for both sides agreed and he was excused, leaving but 25 men in the original venire to be present at court tomorrow. Tomorrow the trial begins and the selection of a trial jury will be under way by night.

Governor Gooding has personal charge of the prosecution, but J. H. Hawley is field marshal for the state. His leading associate is United States Senator Borah, one of the greatest criminal lawyers in the west. Borah's friends charge that it is because of his association with the prosecution of this case that charges against him in connection with the land investigations have been made.

Attorney J. H. Nugent has charge of the active preparation of the case for the defense. He established offices here soon after the arrest of the prisoners and has practically lived here continuously. Clarence Darrow of Chicago, a leading lawyer of radical opinions, identified with ex-Mayor Dunne's advocacy of municipal ownership, is one of the most prominent among the counsel for the defense.

Buenos Ayres, May 8.—A dispatch from Montevideo, published here today, announces that the French transport maritime steamer Poitou, from Marseilles, April 6, for this port, has been wrecked off the coast of Uruguay. One hundred of her passengers and crew are said to have perished.

A dispatch from Montevideo says, “The French Steamer Poitou, from Algiers, is ashore off San Jose Ignacio. It is feared that there has been serious loss of life.

“The Poitou struck 30 yards from the shore, at a spot called Rincon de Herrero. A panic broke out on board the vessel when she grounded, and a great number of people jumped overboard and were drowned. Some of them swam ashore. Customs officials at Rincon de Herrero saved 50 out of the 200 passengers who are said to have been on board. How many others have been saved is not known.”

Order of Sale.

In the county court of the State of Oregon for the county of Benton.

In the matter of the Guardianship of the person and estate of Gertrude A. Seckler, a minor.

Order to show cause. The court having read the petition of Annie Seckler, the duly appointed guardian of the said Gertrude A. Seckler, asking that the court grant an order, to sell lots one and two, in block seven, in the original town of Marysville, now Corvallis, Benton county, Oregon, in which said minor has an undivided one-half interest, and the court being fully advised in the premises, that it is necessary and for the best interest of said minor.

It is therefore hereby ordered, That the next day of said minor, and all other persons interested in said estate appear before this court on the 8th day of June, at ten o'clock A. M., at the court room of the county judge of said county, in Corvallis, Oregon, and show cause why an order should not be granted as prayed for in the petition herein filed.

And it is further hereby ordered, That a copy of this order be published in the Corvallis Times, a newspaper of general circulation published in said Benton county, Oregon, at least once a week for four successive and consecutive weeks.
