FIVE HUNDRED RAISED.

Great Prospects for the Coming Livestock Show—Many Prizes Offered.

The general committee is busy in the preparations of the big livestock show that is to be held in Corvallis June 7th and 8th. Five hundred dollars has been raised to be given in prizes, and it is expected to bring to town on the days mentioned all the fancy stock in the county.

DROP IN CATTLE PRICES.

Quoted as Low as Four and a Quarter in Portland Market.

A drop in the price of beef is bad news for stock men. The Portland market tumbled a few days ago from five and five and a quarter to four and a half.

New Theatrical Attraction.

In "The Bogus Prince" which is to appear at the Opera House next Wednesday, May 29, we have a musical comedy treat.

Wm. Robinson, the star comedian of the company, has the part of a supposed African potentate, who is exploited by Madam Astorbilt, and the scene following the sudden rise of the humble negro to a position of brilliance, furnishes many opportunities for bright comedy.

The chorus is one of the most captivating, beautifully gowned and clever dancers that have ever visited this city, and their winning ways are bound to make a hit.

L. L. Brooks will buy oats in car lots, get his prices before selling. Sacks furnished. When in need of farm or garden seeds of any kind, call at the seed store.

Annual Picnic.

The Suver Camp of M. W. A. will give their 7th annual picnic at Ridder's grove 2 1/2 miles south of Suver May 25.

High Mass at the Catholic Church Sunday at 10 A. M. Benediction at 7:30 P. M.

ON COLLEGE FIELD.

University of Oregon and O. A. C. Track Meet This Afternoon.

The annual track and field meet between O. A. C. and the University of Oregon teams occurs on college field this afternoon. It is generally conceded that the state university men will have the best of the argument, and the spirit of the contest is centered mainly in how small or how large the margin will be between the two scores.

REMODELLING THE OPERA HOUSE

The Contract Has Been Awarded—Work Begins Soon.

People who go to the Opera House after August 15th will be confronted with changes and improvements. The contract has been let for putting in an inclined floor and a new front.

Notice.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN by the undersigned that he has purchased, as of date April 16, 1907, the saw-mill plant and business of E. W. Strong at Corvallis, Oregon, heretofore operated under the name of Corvallis Saw-mill Company and that he will continue such business under the same name.

To Sheep Owners.

Until further notice it is important that we dip only infected sheep in our county. All sheep that are free from infection will be exempted for the present and at a later date the entire federal force will visit the Willamette Valley and inspect any and all sheep, and should the percentage of disease appear slight and the work done appear to have been effective, the general dipping of non-infected sheep may be waived.

It is especially desired that we use our best efforts to eradicate cases that may be in existence in order that the county may be in a satisfactory condition and the federal authorities will see fit to waive the general dipping of uninfected sheep.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

—A cablegram from him announced the arrival of J. M. Nolan at Queenstown, Wednesday morning.

—The ladies of the Episcopal church gave an ice cream social at the rectory Wednesday evening. The net proceeds were, $26.10.

—The Coffee Club is to celebrate its twenty-sixth anniversary next Monday evening in Firemen's hall, with a card party. Members are expected to bring their friends.

—The Oregon Development League will hold its next convention Friday and Saturday, June 21st and 22d in the rooms of the Portland Commercial club, second floor Sixth and Alder streets. This date meets the approval of a large number of persons who want to be present.

—C. A. Mallett and family have removed to the Van Hoozen residence next door north of the Wilbanks home. Clay Gilbert and family now occupy the Temple of Justice, which has been converted into a neat and comfortable dwelling.

—A. P. Stover, a government irrigation engineer, a graduate of Berkeley, California, was in town yesterday, perfecting arrangements for irrigation experiments to be conducted by the college in connection with the government research in that line.

—Miss Millie Handy, aged 15, fell half way down the stairway at the Christian church Wednesday afternoon, and had to be carried home on a stretcher. A bad shaking up and painful bruises kept her confined to her bed for a day but she is now well along the road to recovery.

—A wedding occurred in the county clerk's office Wednesday noon, in which Thomas J. Hamer and Leona Parker were the contracting parties, and John Withycombe and Claude Zumwalt witnesses. The couple left on the afternoon train for Summit to reside. Rev. Vincent tied the knot.

—Albany Democrat: Some one who read the testimony in the New York railroad case says that Harriman swore that he had bought the Corvallis and Eastern road, in order to keep others out of the field that he wanted for his syndicate. If so this settles the ownership question so often discussed.

—A representative of the General Electric of Schenectady was at the college the other day, seeking graduates in the electrical course in the coming or past classes whom he wanted to enter the employ of his company at Schenectady. Several men are understood to have been recommended by Prof. Covell.

—Albany Herald: A spoiled child grown up is generally warped and lopsided, and the world can never agree, when he marries he expects to marry his mother or a woman like his mother, to humor his whims and when she fails to humor him, there is inharmonious, disappointment, failure, life becomes a burden, death a relief and still the parents claim to have loved the child.

—Entries are pouring in at the college of high school track teams that are to compete in the big meet to take place on O. A. C. field a week from next Saturday. Among those already entered are, Baker City, Union, Pendleton, Island City, La Grande, Portland, Hill Military Academy, East Side High school Portland, Astoria, Salem, Eugene and Roseburg. A gold medal is to be given the winner of each event, and a silver medal to the winner of second place.

—A story is in circulation at the college, that Forest Smithson, the well-known O. A. C. sprinter, now at Notre Dame, broke the world's record in the 100 yard sprint in a triangular meet recently between Notre Dame, Wisconsin and Chicago. The time attributed to him is nine 2-5 seconds. Application is said to have been made to the A. A. U. for measurement of the track and the recognition of the record. Four watches are declared to have agreed on the time. Smithson is a registered A. A. U. athlete and if the track proves to be regulation and the time is confirmed the record will become official. Smithson's great speed has always been known here but of the phenomenal character of the time in which the distance is to have been made causes many to await a confirmation before accepting the news as final.

Fresh strawberries served with sundaes at the Palace of Sweets.

—Wheat is 75 cents in the local market.

—Mrs. E. H. Taylor is suffering with an attack of appendicitis.

—A neat two story residence is being erected on the corner of Seventh and Washington streets by Charles McHenry for Recorder Emery J. Newton. It is to be ready for occupancy on July 13th and is to contain seven rooms.

—A new bungalow with basement is to be built on the south corner at the end of Main street, on lots just east of the ice factory. Miss Ella Johnson is to be the owner, and it is to be a home for herself and her mother. The excavation for the basement has already begun. Taylor Porter is to be the builder.

—Contractor Charles Heckert has begun the erection of a new residence for Fred Buchanan on the latter's farm a mile and a half west of town. Mr. Buchanan it will be remembered bought 127 acres out of the Samuel White-side farm. The new dwelling is to have six rooms, pantry, bath, two porches and a basement.
