SEASIDE — After playing Top 10 teams for the past two weeks, the Seaside girls basketball team took a break from the tough competition Thursday night, and broke their three-game losing streak.

Maddi Utti poured in 28 points, and the Gulls cruised past Newport, 65-32, in a nonleague game.

Seaside forced 35 turnovers, 22 in the first half, as the game got out of hand early.

The Gulls built a 21-0 lead, and the Cubs had seven turnovers on their first seven possessions, taking nearly two minutes just to get the ball past midcourt.

By the time Newport scored, the Cubs had 13 turnovers.

Utti scored 12 of her 28 in the first quarter, with teammate Whitney Westerholm adding seven of her 17 points in the first.

Utti also had seven rebounds and five of Seaside's 18 steals. Haylee Dundas added four steals, and Allison Bussert dished out four assists.

Since Dec. 30, the Gulls have played No. 8-ranked La Grande, No. 3 Henley, No. 1 Sutherlin and No. 2 Gladstone.

BOYS BASKETBALL

Seaside 57, Newport 41

SEASIDE — Seaside had four players in double figures, and the Gulls snapped a three-game losing skid with a 57-41 win over Newport Thursday night, in nonleague boys basketball action.

The Cubs led 9-5 early, before Seaside went on a 9-0 run, capped by two scores off the bench from Michael Lewis.

Jackson Januik closed the first quarter with a 3-pointer, which sparked an 8-0 run, and the Gulls were never challenged.

Januik had 13 of his game-high 15 points in the first half, while Lewis finished with 13 points. Austin Eagon added 12 and Zach Marston scored 10 for Seaside, 6-6 overall.

10 straight dual meets dating back to last season's undefeated effort.

Valley Catholic defeated the Lady Gulls, 105-56, as Seaside falls to 2-1 in dual meets.

Seaside's Clarisse Coventry won both sprint races, the 50- and 100-yard freestyles, setting personal records in both.

On the boys' side, Seaside winners included Brad Rzewnicki (200 and 500 yard freestyles); Luke Liljenwall (100 freestyle); and Will Kendall (100-yard breaststroke).

Seaside also won the 200-yard freestyle relay (Rzewnicki, Kendall, Sam Beaudoin and Dylan Townsend); and Rzewnicki, Beaudoin, Will Garvin and Liljenwall teamed up to win the 400-yard freestyle relay.

Seaside travels to The Dalles Saturday for the Riverhawk Invitational.

The people supported by Coast Rehabilitation Services (CRS) as well as the CRS employees would like to THANK ALL OF THE MEMBERS OF THE ASTORIA MOOSE LODGE FOR THE FESTIVE CHRISTMAS PARTY AND DINNER THEY PROVIDED ON DECEMBER 16.

The meal was spectacular and the evening's visit by Santa Claus was an overwhelming success with everyone leaving with a cherished gift. We would like to express our appreciation for how much time, energy and resources go into an event like this...and it keeps getting better each year.

Efforts by people and organizations such as the Moose to make sure that all people in Clatsop County are thought of and remembered during the holidays are what make Astoria special.
