Accessorize with Assistance League

Assistance League of the Columbia Pacific hosts third annual event

ASTORIA — It's time to score big while shopping at this year's third annual Accessorize with Assistance League special sales event from noon to 4 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 1 at the Holiday Inn Express; an event of Assistance League of the Columbia Pacific.

Shoppers will have plenty of time before the big game starts on Super Bowl Sunday to take a break and shop for that special handbag, scarf or piece of jewelry, all at bargain prices. This year's event will also include small home and garden décor pieces donated by Assistance League members.

This annual fundraiser helps ALCP make a difference for area schoolchildren by donating new or gently used accessories that are being collected at all Clatsop County Columbia Bank locations. Funds from this event go to Operation School Bell, a signature program of the Assistance League that provides clothes for Clatsop County schoolchildren in need. Last year's fundraiser helped clothe 594 children.

So join the fun, make a donation and come to the sale to see what you can score — everyone wins, especially the kids. There is no admission fee, and cash or checks are accepted.

The Holiday Inn Express is located at 204 Marine Drive. For more information, contact Leslie Long at 503-717-3671 or visit www.assistanceleaguecp.org

Learn history of Camp Rilea

Library hosts author Andrea Larson Perez

SEASIDE — Friends of the Seaside Library present "The History of Camp Rilea" with local author Andrea Larson Perez at 7 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 5. Perez will tell the fascinating story of the important role Camp Rilea has played to all who have passed through its gates. Afterward, there will be book sales and signings. The event is free and will take place in the Community Room.

Originally named Camp

Clatsop, the camp was founded in 1927 and soon became the Oregon National Guard's preferred training site. Located in Warrenton, the camp covers 1,800 acres and includes three miles of beachfront.

Since the early days, the Armed Forces Training Center has been a premier regional location offering maneuver areas, facilities and ranges assisting a myriad of military units, law enforcement agencies and public safety organizations. From the time of Brig. Gen. Thomas Rilea in 1931 to the present day, the camp has provided training and support for the armed forces.

Perez is a native of St. Petersburg, Florida. She relocated to the lower Columbia region in 1994. She has a degree in public relations from California State University and is married to Col. Dean Perez, the current post commander at Camp Rilea. This is her first book.

The Seaside Public Library is located at 1131 Broadway. For more information call 503-738-6742 or visit www.seasidelibrary.org
