Duel in the Desert

KICKOFF:
6:30 p.m. EST
Sunday, Feb. 1
NBC

THE QUARTERBACKS

WILSON VS. BRADY

New England's Tom Brady is one of the best quarterbacks in NFL history. A consummate winner, he is a two-time NFL and Super Bowl MVP who has a knack for keeping his cool in tight spots. Russell Wilson has become one of the NFL's best players in a short time, the prototype in the new era of mobile quarterbacks after leading the Seahawks to the Super Bowl twice in his first three NFL seasons. -The Associated Press

THE COACHES

New England's Bill Belichick and Seattle's Pete Carroll are two of the NFL's best tacticians. Belichick is known for his complicated offensive schemes, dour public persona and occasionally stretching the rules. Carroll is an aggressive play caller who put together one of the NFL's stingiest defenses and wears his emotions on his sleeve.

THE HALFTIME SHOW

Katy Perry will be the latest big-name star to perform at halftime of the Super Bowl and will be joined by Lenny Kravitz. They join an illustrious list of performers that includes Bruce Springsteen, Prince, The Who, Madonna and Beyonce. Bruno Mars performed with the Red Hot Chili Peppers at last year's game.

THE COMMERCIALS

The commercials have become a cultural phenomenon as companies have tried to one-up each other with spots that range from quirky to inspirational. This year's ads, which cost advertisers about $4.4 million for 30 seconds, will include a return of Anheuser-Busch's Clydesdales, a rumored spot with Lindsay Lohan, and blockbuster movie trailers.
