

OBITUARIES

Eunice Jeanne Scheurich
Gardnerville, Nev.
Nov. 17, 1944 — Feb. 4, 2015

Eunice Jeanne Scheurich was born Nov. 17, 1944, in Astoria, to Uno and Jeanne Rautio, and passed away Feb. 4, 2015, at the Hospice Care Center.

She spent her early years in Seaside, Ore., and attended Seaside Union High School. She married Ray Tremayne in 1964. They had two sons, Raymond and Christopher.

Eunice spent several years working in the Warrenton canneries and excelled in her positions there. The family moved to Kelso, Wash., in 1980, and Eunice worked for Tollycraft and North Star Yachts, working with, and running, the fiberglass crew. She expected them to work as hard as she did, and Eunice was rewarded with a cruise to Mexico on a company yacht.

She enjoyed golfing, hunting and anything that put her in the sun. She also enjoyed many special trips with her friend, Chris Carter, including a cruise to Alaska. She took great pleasure in family camping trips and loved to run. She took part in numerous running events, the Hood-to-Coast being her favorite, and she earned many awards. Her passion for running became daily walks with friends around Lake Sacajawea. Eunice had a good sense of humor and loved to laugh. She had a love of animals, especially dogs. She was always willing to give, or find, a home for animals in need.

After the loss of her husband, Ray Tremayne, Eunice married Ray Scheurich in 1997, gaining two more sons, Steven and Ryan. Eunice and Ray spent many years enjoying old and new friends, and combining two families into one. Her grandchildren were the joy of her life. She was always up for an adventure with them, making many wonderful memories.

In addition to her first husband, she was preceded in death by her parents; a brother, Robert Rautio; and a grandson, Zachary Tremayne.

Eunice is survived by her loving husband, Ray Scheurich; two sons, Raymond and Christopher Tremayne; stepsons Steven and Ryan Scheurich; a sister, Sanna Lundquist (Paul); her brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law, Gil and Donna Tremayne, Bill and Connie Stroud, Paul and Carol Scheurich and Sherri Rautio; eight grandchildren; several nieces and nephews; and the "daughter of her heart," Danika Velasco.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggest donations be made to the Community Home Health & Hospice or the Humane Society of Cowlitz County, Wash.

A memorial service is planned for 11 a.m. Feb. 21 at Steele Chapel, 5050 Mount Solo Road, Longview, Wash.

Richard Clement Paulsen
Astoria
July 26, 1920 — Feb. 3, 2015

Richard Clement Paulsen was born in Raymond, Wash., to Peter and Hilda Paulsen. They moved to Astoria in 1921, where his father owned and operated the Owl Drug Store with Mr. Frank Berg.

He graduated from AHS in 1938 and went on to attend Oregon State College (now OSU). There he was affiliated with Beta Theta Pi fraternity, was in ROTC, and graduated from the school of pharmacy in 1942 with a BS degree.

He married his high school sweetheart, Myrtle L. Andersen, on July 19, 1942. They were married 70 years until her passing in 2012. They had four children together. He was a second lieutenant in the infantry during World War II. Returning home, he started working for his father at the Owl Drug Store in 1946.

He owned and operated the Owl Drug Store from 1953 to 1973, when he sold it; later working for Gil Kamara Real Estate. In 1964 he took his family to visit relatives in Norway, and they spent time traversing Europe. In 1965 he was awarded the George Award from the Astoria Chamber of Commerce for his role in organizing buses for the Save Our Salmon excursion to Salem.

He served on many local boards and committees, among them: as a city councilman, on the Selective Service Board, in the Rotary Club, a member of Astoria Golf & Country Club (where he served on the board of directors three times), a member of First Lutheran Church (where he was a councilman and established an endowment fund), a member of Clatsop County Historical Society, a member of Columbia River Maritime Museum, and a member of Oregon State Pharmaceutical Association.

He was past president of the YMCA and a member of the Sons of Norway Lodge. He was chairman of the first very successful Heart Fund drive, he donated to the Liberty Theatre's restoration and he donated to the Astoria Column restoration.

He is survived by three children: Dianne J. Baxter, Judy C.P. Clark, and Richard C.P. Paulsen; seven grandchildren; and 12 great-grandchildren.

The memorial service will be Feb. 21 at 12 noon, held at the First Lutheran Church on 33rd and Grand in Astoria. In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to the First Lutheran Church Endowment Fund, or the Columbia River Maritime Museum, on behalf of Richard Paulsen.

Dana Goss
Northfield, Minn.
Oct. 12, 1960 — Feb. 8, 2015

Dana Christopher Goss was born Oct. 12, 1960, in Portland, Ore., to Walter and Geraldine (Peterson) Goss. He was raised in Astoria, Ore., and graduated from Astoria High School in 1979. After high school he moved to Fullerton, Calif., where he received his associate degree at Fullerton Junior College.

On Aug. 22, 1981, Dana married Marcy Jones at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Astoria. After marriage they lived in Southern California, where Dana worked as a welder and they started their family. During that time he began working on freight and transit light rail projects in the Los Angeles area.

In 1997, while Dana was recovering from injuries received in an automobile accident, Dana, Marcy and the kids returned to Oregon to be closer to their family. In 2000, they moved to the St. Louis area, where Dana returned to working on light rail projects. In 2001, they moved to Northfield, Minn., and Dana began working on the light rail Hiawatha Line and the St. Paul Central Corridor Project.

Dana loved to celebrate "big," and had a great time with his Halloween display and carving amazing pumpkins, Fourth of July fireworks and barbecues (Dana made the best ribs!) and Christmas. He loved and cherished the time he spent with his grandson, Avery, watching movies together and swimming in the hot tub. Avery loved staying up late and eating crab with his Papa.

Survivors include his wife Marcy; four children, Angie (Aaron) Frawley of Lonsdale, Minn., Talon Goss (fiancée Samantha Mancl) of Cincinnati, and Steph and Molly Goss of Colorado Springs; his grandson, Avery, and a grandbaby on the way; his sisters, Debra (Greg) Pishue of Washington, Diane (Steve) Bish of Portland; his brothers, Dean Goss of Astoria, Dirk (Nikki) Larson of Salem, Ore., Darin Larson of Astoria; and nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. He was preceded in death by his parents and his beloved grandmother, Ethel Peterson.

Dana passed away unexpectedly at his home in Northfield on Sunday, Feb. 8, 2015, at the age of 54. He will be greatly missed by his family, especially by his best buddy, Avery.

A Celebration of Dana's Life will be held on Saturday, Feb. 14, at the Best Western Lincoln Inn hotel in Astoria, Ore. The celebration will begin at 11:30 a.m.

Arrangements are with Benson & Langehough Funeral Home, www.northfieldfuneral.com
