Show your heart for the arts Saturday

Willapa Heritage Foundation hosts 20th annual fundraiser

SOUTH BEND, Wash. — The Willapa Heritage Foundation presents the 20th annual Hearts for the Arts auction and fundraiser on Valentine's Day Saturday, Feb. 14. This event will be held at the Willapa Harbor Community Center, located at 916 W. First St. Doors open at 6 p.m.

The evening includes fine art, hors d'oeuvres, desserts and drinks at the no-host bar. There will be a live auction, silent auction and raffle table; the auctioning starts at 8 p.m. In addition to the artworks for sale, there will be gift certificates, jewelry, gift baskets and photography.

Advance tickets are $20 and can be purchased at South Bend Pharmacy, Sagen's Pharmacy, or by contacting any of the board members.

Tickets at the door are $25.

The Willapa Heritage Foundation is a nonprofit organization supporting the arts and artists in the community. Thanks to the community, artists and contributors who support this annual fundraiser, the Willapa Heritage Foundation is able to provide scholarships to students in the local area who are pursuing higher education in the arts, provide instruments and music for local school music programs, support woodturning, art and pottery classes, purchase supplies for Art Smart, and help the community with support for the grand piano at the Raymond Theater.

Ongoing projects include Sunday Afternoon Live, Friends of the Library, Willapa Harbor Chamber of Commerce, NW Carriage Museum, and the presentation of the People's Choice Photo Show every summer. Willapa Heritage Foundation is an all-volunteer group and all proceeds are directed locally in Pacific County.
