Knappa wins low-scoring battle with Pirates

By GARY HENLEY
The Daily Astorian

KNAPPA — Basketball is a crazy game that doesn't make much sense at times. The Knappa girls held a one-point lead at halftime of their Northwest League playoff game with Neah-Kah-Nie Thursday night. The Lady Loggers made just two shots from the field the entire second half, and won by seven.

Knappa's 36-29 victory over the Pirates sends the Loggers on to the next round, where they will face City Christian at 1 p.m. Saturday in Forest Grove. Shailei Wright scored 12 points, and the Loggers (13-11 overall) overcame a slow night offensively to beat the Pirates, who finish 10-11.

"It wasn't a bad shooting night — we just didn't take a lot of shots," said Knappa coach Marie Green. "Shailei didn't take her first shot until the second quarter, and it was just a low-scoring game all the way through. "We shot much better from the free throw line, compared to the last time," said Green, whose team was 12-of-34 on free throws in last week's double-overtime loss at Neah-Kah-Nie. The Pirates were 3-for-21 at the line in the first game.

In Thursday's victory, Knappa was 9-for-42 from the field (1-of-11 from the 3-point line), but fortunately the Loggers got hot at the free throw line, where they made 17-of-35 foul shots (14-of-28 in the second half alone) to secure the win. Neah-Kah-Nie was just 2-for-8 from the line, and the Pirates hurt their cause with 28 turnovers. Wright had seven steals and Kacie Cameron had four steals for Knappa.

The Loggers overcame a 7-4 deficit after one quarter by outscoring Neah-Kah-Nie 13-9 in the second, highlighted back-to-back jump shots from Wright and Cameron, and Wright's running jumper with time winding down for a 17-16 halftime lead.

Wright had a short jumper to end the third period, and Chloe Little made Knappa's only 3-pointer to start the fourth, giving the Loggers a 25-22 lead. The Loggers scored the rest of their points from the free throw line.

Stacey Aho and Little both had eight rebounds for Knappa, which will be without Kaitlyn Landwehr for the rest of the season, out with an illness. Knappa can clinch the league's No. 3 seed to the state playoffs with a win Saturday over City Christian, a team the Loggers defeated 56-42 last week.

"We'll just have to do what we did the last time we played them," Green said. "Play hardcore man-to-man defense like we did tonight, and hope their shooters don't get hot."

Falls City 47, Jewell 28

PORTLAND — The season came to a close for the Jewell girls basketball team Thursday afternoon, as Falls City jumped out to an early lead and held on for a 47-28 win over the Lady Jays in the third-place game of the Casco League playoffs.

Jewell reached Thursday's game with a 40-37 win over Livingstone Adventist Wednesday.

Both games were played at Warner-Pacific College in Portland.

In Thursday's loss, Tiaunnah Davis of Falls City scored 19 points and Tierra Reynolds had 12, as the Mountaineers built a 23-10 halftime lead.

Sophomore Alyscia Littlepage led Jewell with 14 points, while freshman teammate Emma Guillen added 12 points and 10 rebounds.

In Wednesday's victory over Livingstone Adventist, Guillen hit two free throws with 23 seconds left to clinch Jewell's win.

Littlepage led the Jays with 14 points and four steals, and freshman Gabi Morales chipped in with 11 points, nine rebounds, three assists and three steals before fouling out early in the fourth quarter.

Freshman Ashley Thurston added eight points for Jewell.

Jewell played both games with just six players, as Hannah Littlepage was out with an illness.

BOYS BASKETBALL

Toutle Lake 44, Ilwaco 34

ROCHESTER, Wash. — Toutle Lake improved to 21-3 overall, and Ilwaco dropped to 22-3, after Toutle Lake defeated the Lady Fishermen 44-34 in a Southwest 2B District Tournament girls basketball game Thursday.

Ilwaco will play Life Christian Saturday in the fifth-sixth place game, scheduled for 1 p.m. at Rochester.

Toutle Lake held a slim 17-14 lead at halftime, then went on a key 16-8 run in the third quarter.

Jasmine Coffin was Ilwaco's only scorer in double figures, with 11, as Toutle Lake held Mackenzie Kaech to nine points.
