OBITUARIES

Lydee Anne Steinberg Palm Springs, Calif. Nov. 15, 1973 — Feb. 3, 2015

Lydee Steinberg

In the afternoon of Feb. 3, 2015, Lydee passed away in Palm Springs, Calif.

Lydee was born in Eureka, Calif., and moved to Knappa, Ore., in 1977, where she attended grade school at Hilda Lahti Elementary and graduated from Knappa High School in 1992.

Lydee attended Clatsop Community College, attaining her criminal justice certificate. She attended the police academy in Monmouth, Ore., and was a police officer in Cannon Beach, Ore. Lydee then moved to Seattle, where she attended the police academy in Burien, Wash., and became an officer for the Seattle Police Department. The last five years of her career, she was a mounted patrol officer for Seattle. Those of us who knew Lydee knew her love for horses and all animals, so this was a perfect fit for her and her dream job.

Lydee loved her family, all her friends, her animals, the sun and her motorcycles. Riding her Harley put a huge smile on her face.

Lydee retired in 2013. Being the sun-seeker that she was, she left the Northwest to follow the sun. She traveled to Texas, Florida, Hawaii, Las Vegas and her ultimate spot she loved, Palm Springs.

Lydee is survived by her mother Mardee and stepfather Tom Spaan; her sister Amy and husband Naji Hamdan and niece, Vivienne; her brother Eric Johnson; and step-siblings Sahlia and Tyson Spaan.

In lieu of flowers, please donate to the animal shelter of your choice to support Lydee's love of animals.

A celebration of life will be held on March 28, 2015, from 3 to 5 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church, 1103 Grand Ave., Astoria, OR 97103.

Lois Foster Hillsboro

Jan. 11, 1932 — March 3, 2015

Lois Marlene Foster passed away peacefully on March 3, 2015, at the age of 83, in Hillsboro, Ore. Lois was born Jan. 11, 1932, to Arthur and Edra Camberg in Astoria, Ore. Due to her parents' work with various logging camps in Northwest Oregon, Lois lived and attended school in a number of places as a child, including Wheeler, Astoria and Jewell, Ore.

Lois met the true love of her life, Earnest "Buddy" Foster at a dance at the Vine Maple Grange Hall in Jewell when she was 16 years old, and he was home after being discharged from the Navy. A year and a half later they married. Lois lived the majority of her life in Jewell and Olney, Ore., where she and Buddy raised their family.

Lois never shied away from hard work. She was an excellent cook and homemaker all her life. While raising her family, she intermittently worked as a sales clerk at JC Penny Co., grocery checker at the Astoria IGA, and even opened her own business for a time in Astoria (Lois and Dot's Café). She also worked in the cafeteria at Jewell School.

Lois and Buddy opened their home to serve as foster parents to numerous children in foster care throughout the years, temporarily expanding their family as others needed them. Lois was a bright, upbeat, quick witted, spunky personality, who had a quip and good natured joke about most situations. She enjoyed camping and was a terrific dancer in her day.

She remained deeply committed to her family all her life, and was a well loved mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, auntie and friend to many. She will be dearly missed.

Lois is predeceased by her husband, her parents, a brother, Herb Camberg, and a sister, Joan Camberg Olstedt. She is survived by her three children, Clifford R. Foster (Katie), Janette M. Hughes (Dominic Kohlasch) and Clark A. Foster (Heidi); nine grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren, and numerous nieces and nephews.

A graveside service will be held Saturday, March 7, 2015, at 11 a.m. at Jewell Cemetery in Jewell, Ore.

Hughes-Ransom Mortuary in Seaside is in charge of arrangements. Visit www.hughes-ransom.com to leave condolences and sign the guest book.

Howard Jefferson Bell Seaside

Nov. 25, 1910 — March 2, 2015

Howard Jefferson Bell passed away Monday morning, March 2, 2015, at the age of 104. He was born Nov. 25, 1910, in Portland, Ore., to Chriss A. Bell and Charlotte Bennett Bell, who were married on the front porch of the family home in Gearhart in 1904.

The family, which included brothers Robert and Frederick Bell and sister Edna Ellen Bell, spent their summers in Gearhart, like many families of that day. Their father would stay in Portland during the week, and come to the beach on the weekends on the "Daddy Train," while mother and the kids would spend their days clamming, beach combing and playing tennis and golf.

He grew up and went to school in Portland, attended Glencoe Elementary, Franklin High and eventually spent time at Virginia Military Institute and Oregon State University. Admittedly not the greatest student in the world, he eventually went into his own small business, Howard Bell Film Service, where he worked for the rest of his life.

He married May Elaine Tumbull in 1938, after having met her on the tennis courts when they were in high school. Together they raised three children: Chris Bell of Green Valley, Ariz., Douglas Bell (Christine) of Portland and Gearhart, and Patricia Bell Wollner, also of Gearhart. He also leaves eight grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Howard is predeceased by his parents, wife, brothers and sister. At his request there will be no service. Hughes-Ransom Mortuary in Seaside is handling the arrangements. In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to the North Coast Land Conservancy, P.O. Box 67, Seaside, OR, 97138.

The family would like to thank all those who carefully cared for him at Necanicum Village in Seaside during his last few months. While he was there, he was able to watch the famous coastal elk herd outside his living room window, as well as a few golfers braving the cold winter sun.

Being a man of few words, Howard wrote a note to each of his children describing how he wanted things handled after his death, ending with, "Love to you all and will see you in Eternity."
