SEASIDE — The first track meet of the season was a Clatsop Clash event, plus one.

Astoria and Seaside staged the season's first Cowapa League dual meet, while Warrenton also had athletes taking part in Thursday's three-way meet at Seaside, as the trio of schools met under sunny skies on the Gulls' track.

Teamwise, the Astoria girls and Seaside boys had enough points to take first in the team standings.

The Fishermen and the Gulls both had some athletes missing from the lineup ... still, the usual big stars scored their usual big wins for both teams.

Individually, the Willyard sisters shared in five victories for the Gulls, with Danielle winning the 100 meters and the long jump; while Kelly took the 400 meters.

Danielle ran the second leg on the winning 400-meter relay, and Kelly ran leadoff for the winning 1,600-meter relay team.

In her high school debut, Astoria freshman Darian Hageman won the high jump and triple jump, and took second in the long jump.

Meanwhile, one athlete dominated the throwing events, as Astoria junior Halie

Hougham delivers game-winner for Astoria softball

The Daily Astorian

For the second year in a row, the Astoria softball scored a one-run win over Estacada, as the Lady Fish edged past the Rangers 6-5 Thursday afternoon at CMH Field.

Astoria rallied from a 5-2 deficit in the fifth, scoring one in the fifth inning, two in the sixth and one seventh to get the win.

Caitlyn Hougham's one-out double brought in Hailey Ranta with the game-winning run for the Lady Fish, who defeated Estacada 10-9 in a non-league game last season.

Hougham finished 3-for-5 with two doubles, while Rylee DeMander belted an inside-the-park homer down the right field line in the first inning.

She also had a double in the sixth inning, and combined with Libby DiBar-tolomeo on the mound to strike out five, with two walks and seven hits allowed.

Kelsey Wullger added a single and a triple for Astoria, which had nine hits and drew five walks.

The Fishermen take part in the Seaside Tournament next week, facing Warrenton and Ilwaco Monday.
