

Track: Seaside wins big in the distance races

Seaside made a big impact in the distance races, with Charlotte Blakesley and Josie Smith running 1-2 in both the 1,500 and 3,000 meters; and senior Allison Kilday is off to a hot start, as she swept the hurdle events.

On the boys' side, Seaside won 11 of the 17 events, including the sprints — Josh Chesnut in the 100, Will Garvin in the 200 and Juneau Meyer in the 400.

Chesnut added victories in the long jump and triple jump, and Garvin won the 300 hurdles.

The Gulls were without distance runners Jackson Januik and Hunter Thompson, but Rafi Sibony had an impressive win in the 3,000, as he ran slightly behind Warrenton's Jeryd Lewis for much of the race, then turned on the afterburners to win.

Astoria scored wins with Lucas Caruana in the 800, and Zander Arnold in the shot put.

Warrenton also had some success in the boys' meet, with Luke Liljenwall finishing first in the 1,500, while teammate Chris Ocana won the javelin and the high jump.

Astoria's Andrew Schauer mann clears the bar during the high jump event at the Seaside track meet.
