

Art and books on display today

The Clatsop Community College Library, 1680 Lexington Ave., celebrates the addition of new art books to its collection with a public reception from 4 to 6 p.m. Thursday. Light refreshments will be available.

Each year the library receives free art books from Art

Resources Transfer, an organization that distributes “materials on art and cultural issues to public, school and alternative libraries in rural and inner city areas through the Distribution to Underserved Communities Library program.”

Continue the evening of “Art on Campus” by attending the opening reception for the annual juried Art Student Exhibit beginning at 6 p.m. in the CCC Art Center Gallery, 1799 Lexington Ave. Student work in graphic arts, basic design, drawing, painting, ceramics, photography and printmaking is included. The evening includes a talk by juror Eleanor H. Erskine.

OBITUARIES

Marne James Arens

Astoria
Sept. 13, 1940 — March 27, 2015

Marne James Arens, father, grandfather, brother and friend, passed away peacefully on Friday, March 27, 2015, with his sister by his side.

Marne was born in Yankton, S.D., on Sept. 13, 1940, to Paul and Olive (Newton) Arens.

He lived in Wynot, Neb., as a child until moving to Napa about 1947. He graduated from Napa High School in 1958, and went to work for Kaiser Steel Corp right after graduating. He married Darlene Converse in 1960, and they divorced in 1973. He lived in Fairfield, Calif., until his retirement in 1997, moving to Astoria, Ore., in 2003.

Marne Arens

Marne was full of life and loved to joke and have fun. He was a member of the Coachmen Car Club and the Napa Clampers, an organization of people who loved life and fun. He also loved to camp, fish, and travel.

Marne was an active member of the Loyal Order of Moose for more than 25 years. When he moved to Fairfield, Calif., he joined the Fairfield Moose, where he became a Moose Legionnaire in 1989 and was governor of the lodge in 1993. He received his Fellowship Degree and became a member of the 25 Club in 1999. After moving to Astoria he joined the Astoria Moose, where he remained active until he passed away.

Marne is survived by his son, Jeff (Alicia); stepdaughter, Janette; grandchildren, Katrina, Michael and Nicholas; his sister, Sherry (Steve) Stricker; two aunts, Agnes Hangman and Madeline Newton; several brothers and sisters-in-law; and many nieces, nephews and cousins, all who loved him dearly.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Olive; father, Paul; and brothers, Donald and Gary Arens.

A celebration of life will be held at the Napa Moose Lodge, 3275 Browns Valley Road, Napa, Calif., April 19, 2015, at 2 p.m. Thank you to the Astoria Moose Lodge for having a celebration of life on April 7, 2015.

Inurnment will be private.

Memorial contributions may be made to your local Moose Lodge or Moose International.

David O'Brien

Cannon Beach
Dec. 27, 1933 — April 1, 2015

David O'Brien, a longtime resident of Cannon Beach, passed away on April 1, 2015, following an illness that had lasted several months. Many people knew him as the man who zipped around town in his golf cart in the early years, and then in his power wheelchair, always with a smile, and always ready to enjoy a good joke. David attended the Community Church, worked, volunteered at the Cannon Beach Conference Center, and was the founder of Tryad Ministries.

David was born in his parent's home in Portland, Ore., on Dec. 27, 1933. He attended Grout Elementary School in S.E. Portland. One of the photographs shows David driving the family tractor when he was about 13 years old, with his younger sister, Ellen Clibbon, and his younger brother, the late Shaun O'Brien.

David trusted in Christ as his savior while he was young, leading to a lifelong desire to help others learn about the saving grace of Jesus Christ.

David O'Brien

David called this an important part of God's plan: "I would later see how important that rejection would be in God's overall plans for my life. Since I lived off campus, I had the opportunity to become a member of the community of Cannon Beach and didn't have to leave when school was over."

In 1975, David's pastor mentioned that he had recorded the Bible for radio. That gave David the idea to record the Bible for the handicapped, and that was the beginning of Tryad Ministries. Under his leadership, Tryad Ministries became involved in bringing God's word to the handicapped in a variety of ways, and it continues today to serve the handicapped through an annual conference in Cannon Beach.

David is survived by his sister Ellen (Bob) Clibbon, brother Mike (Greta) O'Brien, Jim Haley (brother-in-law) and various other family members. Our community and his family will always remember David as an individual who loved God, and life, and had the tenacity to always deal with adversity with a smile.

In lieu of flowers, please make memorial gifts to his place of work before retirement, the Cannon Beach Conference Center, P.O. Box 398, Cannon Beach, OR 97110, or to the Cannon Beach Community Church, P.O. Box 37, Cannon Beach, OR 97110.

David's celebration of life will be held at the Cannon Beach Conference Center May 17, 2015, at 3:30 p.m.

Judith Woodworth Swift

Warrenton
May 21, 1937 — April 4, 2015

Judith Woodworth Swift 77, of Warrenton, Ore., died on April 4, 2015, in her home.

Judi was born on May 21, 1937, in Portland, Ore., to Miles and Kay Woodworth. Judi attended Cleveland High School for one year before she moved to Boston, when her father, Miles, began working for the National Fire Protection Association in Boston, Mass.

Judi graduated from Needham High School in 1955, and Dean Junior College in 1957. Judi met Glen at Dean and they were married in Needham, Mass., on Oct. 8, 1960, and lived in Old Saybrook, Conn. They moved to Oregon in 1972, where they raised their three children.

In 1999 Glen and Judi retired to Warrenton, Ore. Judi loved volunteering with the SMART reading program and read to children at Warrenton Elementary School for 11 years. She liked to fish, hike and camp. Judi and Glen enjoyed volunteering as campground hosts in Oregon State Parks.

Judi is survived by her husband, Glen; her three children, Craig Swift of Hillsboro, Ore., Jill Bolliger of Burbank, Wash., and Sally Menolacina of Gresham, Ore.; and a sister, Sally Cleary of Cumberland, R.I. She is also survived by her grandchildren, Alexandra, Wesley, Mackenzie, Kelsey, and Marie.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, April 18, at 2 p.m. at the Seaside Methodist Church, 241 N. Holladay Drive in Seaside, Ore.

In lieu of flowers, the family prefers donations to the Alzheimer's Association of Oregon, Lower Columbia Hospice, or the Seaside Methodist Church.
