

Rain wins out at Seaside Invitational

The Daily Astorian

GEARHART — The conditions started out bad, then got worse Monday afternoon at Gearhart Golf Links, for the Seaside Invitational girls golf tournament.

It got bad enough that the annual invitational was stopped after nine holes, which sent the seven teams home a little earlier than expected.

Golfers battled rain, hail, wind and soggy conditions on the course before the decision was made to end the tournament at nine holes.

The rain-shortened tournament was won by Scappoose, which finished ahead of teams from Astoria, Banks, Molalla, Seaside, Tillamook and Valley Catholic.

Chloe Hunt led Astoria with a 50.
