

Lewis and Clark National Historical Park joins Find Your Park movement

ASTORIA — Lewis and Clark National Historical Park joins parks, programs and partners across the country to encourage everyone to find their park and share their stories online at FindYourPark.com

Launched by the National Park Service and the National Park Foundation, Find Your Park is a public awareness and education campaign celebrating the centennial anniversary of the National Park Service in 2016 and setting the stage for its second century of service.

Find Your Park invites the public to see that a national park can be more than a place — it can be a feeling, a state of mind, or a sense of American pride. Beyond vast landscapes, the campaign highlights historical, urban and cultural parks, as well as the park service programs that protect, preserve and share nature, culture and history in communities.

Find Your Park is also the theme for this year's National
