Warrenton Library looks for heroes

HAMMOND — The Warrenton Community Library, 861 Pacific Drive in Hammond, is already gearing up for another successful Summer Reading Program. The theme this year is "Every Hero Has a Story" because the local community has so many heroes, and the library is looking for a few to help them out.

The summer kick-off party is from 10 a.m. to noon June 6. Anyone interested will be able to sign up for the program at this time. Each child who signs up will receive a bag of fun things to do this summer. On hand there will be a puppet show, face painting, book bag sales and other surprises.

Events to look forward to this summer include: a Super Hero Saturday, where volunteers and library patrons will be heroes for the afternoon and pick up trash around the library streets

Volunteer at the Astoria Column

The Friends of the Astoria Column are looking for volunteers for the summer season to greet visitors, share information and answer questions. An informational meeting is being held at 10 a.m. Tuesday. The group will meet at the map at the Column. Information, materials, a sign-up sheet and refreshments will be provided.

Volunteer shifts are two to three hours, mostly on weekends, but also during special events throughout the summer. Training is provided. Volunteering is a great opportunity to interact with visitors, informing them about the importance and history of the Astoria Column, and to share information about Astoria, such as its history, where else to visit in town, good places to eat and what it is like to live here, organizers said.

For information, call the Friends of the Column Visitors Center at 503-325-2963.

Adopt a pet at Lum's

WARRENTON — Meet some adorable and adoptable shelter dogs from noon to 2 p.m. Saturday at Lum's Auto Center, 1605 S.E. Ensign Lane in Warrenton. Clatsop Animal Assistance volunteers will be at Lum's with "man's best friend." Come by for a barbecue, and take home a new pet.

CAA is an all-volunteer organization dedicated to helping Clatsop County's homeless pets.

The group partners with the county animal shelter and works hard to improve the quality of lives of the shelter dogs and cats. CAA pays for all veterinary care and training for the shelter animals and promotes adoptions throughout the year with ads and adoption events such as this one.

CAA volunteers work directly with the animals, walking dogs, socializing cats, and helping out wherever needed.

For questions, call Marcy Dunning at 503-468-0028.

Getting the inside story at the Hanford Nuclear Reservation

Anna King April 30th

In a series of 12 radio pieces, Anna King is bringing the underrepresented women's perspectives of the Hanford nuclear site out of the shadows.

As a Northwest Public Radio correspondent based in Richland, King is the only journalist covering the Hanford Nuclear Reservation full-time. She has closely followed the mammoth on-again, off-again disposal of nuclear waste at Hanford.
