

Seaside FIRST SATURDAY ART WALK

May
2
5 to 7 p.m.

SEASIDE — Celebrating 11 years in 2015, Seaside First Saturday Art Walk is held on the first Saturday evening of each month. The next art walk is from 5 to 7 p.m. Saturday, May 2. Visitors meet artists, sip wine or snag appetizers, view artist demonstrations and oftentimes enjoy live performances in music. The affairs are in businesses, shops, boutiques and dining establishments located between Holladay and Broadway in the historic Gilbert District of downtown Seaside.

1. T. Anjuli's Gallery

5 N. Holladay Drive

T.Anjuli's features owner and artist Billy Lutz, who recently completed a mural for the Seaside Food Bank.

2. Seaside Coffee House

3 N. Holladay Drive

Stop by this welcoming space where art enthusiasts gather, interact and collectively review the art walk experience. The coffee house features art by Morgan Stoller, whose pen and ink work is demonstrated through dramatic, subtle contrasts of light and shadows.

3. Seaside Antique Mall

726 Broadway

Seaside Antique Mall features photographs by Linda Fenton-Mendenhall, who wears many hats as a photographer, antique exhibitor and entrepreneur. Having lived on the Oregon Coast her whole life, her photos focus on the local landscape and people.

4. SeaSoles Shoe Boutique

12 N. Holladay Drive

SeaSoles Shoe Boutique will show an encore exhibit by popular request for famous Seaside artist Jorjett Strumme and her tiaras. Some of Strumme's bridal headpieces have been designed for a wedding in California and will be in the spring issue of Real Weddings Magazine.

5. Fly the Coop

10 N. Holladay Drive

Fly the Coop owner and artist Melodie Kozol creates multi-media art using paint, fabric and collage. Stop by to see her latest hand-painted wood decor and papier-mâché.

6. Beach Books

616 Broadway

Beach Books is celebrating Independent Book Store Day on May 2 with exclusive pieces available, in addition to featuring an encore group show by the Green Cab Artist Collective. The collective was created with the goal of encouraging and inspiring one another, sharing artist techniques and information about the business side of art, and sharing work with the public. The "Cabbies" are a synergistic alliance of artists, working in diverse mediums from the greater Portland area. The current group includes Helvi Smith, Jeff Hall, Lisa Griffen, Penny Forrest, Elina Zebergs, Jim Zaleski, Bruce Ulrich, Anne Brown and Christine Martell.

7. Fairweather House and Gallery

612 Broadway

Fairweather presents "Open Windows," an exhibit that promises to be a font of originality and innovation. Artists Christine Trexel, Peggy Stein, Zifen Qian and Neal Maine will speak about creating works of art that respond to the sunlight, fresh air, gentle breezes, flowing water, flora and fauna. Although the artists' works are stylistically diverse, they are brought together by a shared interest in reinterpreting what is found outside in nature. In addition, resident artists Marga Stanley and Kimberly Reed will demonstrate a Painting Seaside LIVE event, each finishing a work in

9. The Tea Spot

21 N. Columbia St., Suite 101

A downtown five-minute walk toward the beach, Jason and Chevonne Karol's Tea Spot offers the art of tea with upward of 25 different flavors, using Torani syrup, and tapioca pearls or other jellies lining the bottom.

10. River Inn at Seaside

531 Ave. A

A two-minute walk across the Necanicum Bridge, the River Inn at Seaside, part hotel, part gallery, presents Lee Munsell's oil on canvas work depicting the Seaside Cove and Tillamook Head. In addition, the hotel shows the permanent art collection of regional artists Neal Maine, Victoria Brooks, Paul Brent and Penelope Culbertson.

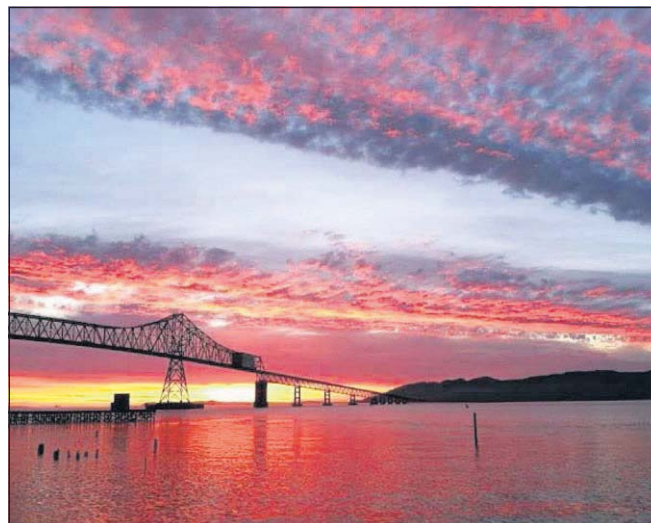

Bill Lutz, owner of T. Anjuli's, recently painted a mural of a fruit tree in the entryway of the South County Community Food Bank.
