Students perform in music recital

Friday Musical Club holds concert and reception Sunday

ASTORIA — Student recipients of the Friday Musical Club scholarship will be featured in a music recital at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, May 3 in First Lutheran Church in Astoria.

The scholarship program consists of teacher recommendations, student applications, instructor assignment, and private music instruction from January to May and culminates in a recital to which the public is invited.

Recital

2:30 p.m. Sunday, May 3
First Lutheran Church
725 33rd St., Astoria
503-436-0378
Free, donations accepted

Students performing in the recital include baritone Adam Morse, a sophomore from Seaside High School;

baritone Enoch Gray, a junior from Astoria High School; soprano Charity Fleck, a sophomore from Ilwaco High School; cellist Jaden Rainey, a student at Astoria Middle School; violinist Julie Foss, a student at Astoria Middle School; cellist Andrew Conrad, a freshman at Astoria High School; french horn player Ryanne Sunnell, a freshman at Seaside High School; and clarinetist Fiona Bonn, a freshman at Seaside High School.

A reception for the musicians will be held immediately following the recital and is hosted by the members of the Friday Musical Club.

The Friday Musical Club is affiliated with Astoria High School Scholarships, Inc., and donations to the scholarship fund are tax deductible. There is no admission charge to the afternoon recital, but donations are accepted for the scholarship fund. For further information, contact scholarship chair Susan Buehler at 503-436-0378.

Redmen Hall hosts artist reception for Carol Peacock

SKAMOKAWA, Wash. — Redmen Hall will present one of Wahkiakum County's premium artists, Carol Peacock, in an art exhibit from 1 to 3 p.m. Saturday, May 2. The reception will allow visitors to meet the artist and enjoy refreshments. The show runs to June 14.

Peacock spent her formative years in Europe studying art and architecture. After studying at the University of California, Berkeley, she spent several years in San Francisco working in a rich artistic environment, then moved to the art colony Eureka Springs in Arkansas. While working there she displayed her art in one-woman exhibits, winning several prestigious awards.

She moved to Cathlamet in 2011 to be close to family and is a member of the Tsuga Art Gallery. This exhibit represents work she has done in Wahkiakum County.

Redmen Hall is located at 1394 Washington State Route 4. For more information, call 360-795-3007.
