There are materials available, but participants may wish to bring scissors, thread, needle, and a small piece of red cloth. Many also bring a picture of the child or other personal token of remembrance. These memorials are left on the Jizo statues. Families and friends are welcome to revisit the garden any time.

The ceremony is very simple, and done in silence. There is no charge, and anyone of any religious affiliation is welcome. To attend, RSVP at <http://bit.ly/1dLZA22>
