THROWBACK 80S

Bar-K Buckaroos September 6

Get your Buck on with this hot Buck Owens band. All Buck, All the time. Should be a twangy good time!

Blue Pickup Bluegrass Band May 24

Blue Pickup rolls into the Sunday Market in September playing their own brand of traditional bluegrass music, featuring tight 3 part vocals and blistering instrumentals on banjo, fiddle, mandolin, guitar, and upright bass.

Brownsmead Flats June 14 & August 23

Original, witty, irreverent folk music in their special "Crabgrass style" www.brownsmeadflats.com

Castle Town August 16

You'll enjoy this Celtic rock folk band as they play familiar cover tunes as well as upbeat Celtic folk! Their music is family friendly and fun. www.reverbnation.com/castletown

The Distractions August 9 & September 13

Experience a time warp that is reminiscent of the Rolling Stones, CCR, The Beatles, Stevie Ray Vaughn and The Replacements <http://www.myspace.com/astoriadistractions>

Double J and the Boys July 19 & August 30

Everyone loves this foot-stomping folk/country band, with a mix of classics and funny originals, energetic fiddle tunes and real live yodeling. Look for Double J and the Boys on Facebook.

Floating Glass Balls July 12

The Floating Glass Balls is a lively string band that jumped the fence, ran off to unlikely places and brought music back for their coastal friends. This is a happy mix of Appalachia and Bayou Tech by way of Jamaica, Amsterdam and Astoria. They call it Beachgrass.

Jazzatti-Tude July 26

Jazzatti-tude is a three piece jazz group playing traditional and popular jazz around Oreon's North coast. Jazzatti-tude has been together about a year and consists of Bob Brook on Guitar, Doug Proctor on Keyboards and Clint Smith on Bass.

Jesse Lee Falls September 27

His music is reminiscent of 70's funk with a refreshingly modern appeal

John Gannon August 2

John has a unique blend of sea shanties, traditional Irish tunes and contemporary favorites that make for a fun experience the entire family will enjoy.

Greg Parke June 28 & October 4

Bringing his popular mix of soulful ballads and feet-tapping dance music to the Market again this season! www.gregparke.com

Lonesome Highway June 7

Get ready for some upbeat Country Rock covering as diverse a group of acts as Dwight Yoakum, Darius Rucker, Warren Zevon, Ryan Adams, Lucinda Williams, the Decemberists, Drive-By Truckers, and of course Johnny Cash, as well as some worthy originals. www.lonesomehighwayband.com

Ray Prestegard June 21 & October 11

Ray plays a 1930 banjo made in Chicago and a dobro guitar made in Portland. He sings contemporary songs like Wagon Wheel and David Grey's Babylon to the 60's Woody Guthrie, Pete Seeger and old traditional songs from the blue hills of Kentucky.

Steel Wool May 10

Described as harmony powered acoustic world folk-rock, this is an upbeat and happily serious band. Steel Wool is danceable, all-original folk-rock fun!

Tenor Guitar Gathering with Ben Hunter & Joe Seamans May 31

American roots music is our playground. They are songsters based in Seattle with a mission to spread the glory and whimsy of traditional song!

Thomasian Trio May 17 & July 25

The Thomasian Trio offers up a big heaping helpin' of jazz, blues and original music

Throwback September 20

Classic 80's Rock!
