OBITUARIES

Robert Landro

Beaverton
July 24, 1921 — May 3, 2014

Robert Landro

Robert (Bob) Landro, 93, of Hillsboro, Ore., passed away Sunday morning, May 3, 2015. A celebration of life service will be held on Saturday, May 30, 2015, at 2 p.m. at Beaverton Nazarene Church, 12555 S.W. 22nd St. in Beaverton. Private family graveside services will be at Ocean View Cemetery near Astoria, Ore.

Bob was born July 24, 1921, in Astoria, Ore., to John E. Landro and Kristine (Fanes) Landro, immigrants from Norway. He was raised in Astoria, and graduated from Astoria High School in 1939. He worked at First National Bank in Astoria, and then as a clerk at the Astoria Post Office, where his father was also working.

During World War II he enlisted in the U.S. Navy, serving as an aviation radioman on PBV Catalinas at Naval Air Station Kaneohe, and at Alameda.

After the war he met Edna Mildred Swift on a blind date, and they were married in Portland on Feb. 9, 1947. They made their home in Astoria where he again worked at the post office, and in 1952 their only child, Louise, was born. Bob was promoted to assistant postmaster, a position he held for about 15 years before retiring in 1972, after 31 years of service. After that he worked part time as a tax preparer for several years.

In 1973 they moved to Vista, Calif., living there a few years before moving to Edmonds, Wash., then Bellingham, and finally to Hillsboro, Ore., in 1981. They enjoyed many happy years with their two grandkids. They attended Tualatin Valley Community Church in Hillsboro, and later the Church of the Nazarene in Beaverton.

Among Bob's special interests were reading, pinocle, golf, bowling and traveling. He and Edna also liked to square dance, and belonged to some bridge groups. While living in Astoria, they were active in the First Methodist Church. The cornerstones of Bob's life were his faith in Jesus, love for his family and friends, and duty to his country.

He demonstrated his love and devotion for Edna when she became ill with Parkinson's disease. When she had to go into a nursing home he visited every day, sitting with her for eight hours a day for four years until she passed away in 2008. They had been married 61 years.

Bob was preceded in death by his three sisters, Jennie Thompson, Agnes Pedersen and Edna Lovvold, as well as a grandson-in-law, Michael McCoy. Survivors include his daughter and son-in-law, Louise and Lloyd Ferrell of Beaverton; two grandchildren, Christy McCoy of Salem, and Mark Ferrell of Marietta, Ga.; a great-grandson, Andrew McCoy; and many nieces and nephews.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Beaverton Nazarene Church, 12555 S.W. 22nd Ave., Beaverton, OR 97008, in his memory.
