

OBITUARIES

Kenneth Dale Hageman

Astoria

Nov. 9, 1936 — May 13, 2015

Kenneth Dale Hageman, 78, passed away Wednesday, May 13, 2015, in Portland, Ore.

Ken was born Nov. 9, 1936, to Oscar and Hazel Fish Hageman in Bryan, Ohio. At the age of 2, his family moved to the Fresno, Calif., area, where he attended school, graduating from Clovis High School.

He entered the Army in 1956. In 1958, he and his dad moved to Astoria to open a shingle mill. It was here that he met his wife, Jean, and became the loving father of her five children.

In 1963, he began working at several local grocery stores. Known by many as the "produce guy," Ken retired from Fred Meyer in 2010, after 17 years.

In his earlier years, he enjoyed playing pool on the Hazel's Tavern team, where he made many lifelong friends. He also enjoyed couples bowling with good friends Dick and Jerry Bartolus.

Traveling was one of his main interests. He went to Mexico, Hawaii, Canada, California, Arizona, Texas, Nevada, Louisiana and Florida. His favorite was cruises. He loved sitting in the sun in Indio, Calif.

Before his heart attack in October 2012, he enjoyed his afternoons by talking with his friends over a couple of beers at the Desdemona. He liked to watch anything on TV involving space and Judge Judy. Kenneth was known by anyone who was lucky enough to know him as a very kind, caring and polite person.

Becoming a grandfather was probably the highlight of his life. He wanted to be involved in all his grandchildren's sports and other activities, and making sure they had plenty of snacks. Family gatherings, barbecues with Ron and Judie Norris, and Christmas were very special to him.

He is survived by his wife, Jean; son, Kenny (Rhonda); daughter, Tami; son, Ronny (Kim); daughter, Micki; son, David (Jackie); and son, Joey (Mary Jo). Grandchildren include Darian, Trey, Jonathan, Christopher, Jill, Cami, C J, Summer, Justin, Caila, Myles, Brandon, Jacob, Megan, Madison, Carole, and Caitie. Also surviving are 16 great-grandchildren; brothers, Bobby (Susan) and Gene; sisters-in-law, Beverly and Dottie; Uncle Lisle (Doris); and many loved nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents; brothers, Wayne and Gary; and daughter, Toni. Graveside services for family and friends will be held Wednesday, May 20, 2015, at 11 a.m. at Greenwood Cemetery in Astoria.

A celebration of life will be held at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be given to Astoria Youth Baseball, P.O. Box 1104, Astoria, OR 97103

Rodney Dean Douglas

Seaside

Nov. 20, 1943 — May 12, 2015

Rodney Dean Douglas was born on Nov. 20, 1943, to Margaret Ann Ness in Seattle, Wash. On May 12, 2015, Rodney passed away at home surrounded by his family.

Rodney is preceded in death by his younger sister Margie, his stepfather Donald Douglas, and his mother Margaret Douglas. Rodney is survived by his wife, Lynda; his daughters, Juliet Davis and Kristen Cazarez; his son, Rodney Jr.; six grandchildren, Dante and Diega Douglas, Jordan, Parker and Ruby Davis, and Saoul Cazarez; two sisters, Barbara Rash and Ellen Low; and several in-laws, and nieces and nephews.

Rodney was raised by Don and Margaret Douglas in Seward and Cordova, Alaska, and Seattle, Wash. In the late 1950s they moved to a small farm in Tigard, Ore. Rodney was a graduate of Tigard High School. Rodney was an enrolled member in the Tlingit Haida tribe of Southeast Alaska. Rodney spent his teen years apprenticing as a carpenter, ship builder and car mechanic with Don Douglas. After high school, Rodney enlisted in the Navy and was stationed in the Philippines and Japan during the Vietnam conflict. He was an enlisted crew member of the USS Clarion River.

When he returned to civilian life in 1967, he lived in Tigard. His passions at this time were collecting and restoring 1929 era Model A Fords. Rodney attended community college and received his degree as a dental technician. During this time he met his future wife, Lynda Peterson. After a short courtship, Rodney and Lynda were married in 1968.

In 1972, Rodney, Lynda and Don Douglas built a beautiful dream home for his growing family on the property in Tigard. For many years, Rodney crafted and improved the home site with landscaping and a four-bay shop to restore his vehicles and share his creativity with friends and family. The house is gone now, but the shop is in use as a park maintenance facility for the city of Tigard. While his children were attending McKay Elementary in Beaverton, Rod gifted the school a reading structure for the library, and the custom crafted school sign which still hangs on the front of the building.

After acquiring his denturist license in the early 1980s, Rodney relocated his family to their Seaside home and started the Astoria Denturist Service. Rodney was the sole proprietor of this business from 1983 until 2009. Many of those years he worked side by side with his daughter, Kristen, who managed the business. Rodney spent his free time camping, fishing, restoring a 1957 Chevy BelAir, a 1949 Dodge dump truck and maintaining the 1929 Model A known as "Sarah." Rod cherished spending time with his family, his children and grandchildren.

The family requests that in lieu of flowers, please donate to your favorite charity.

Hughes-Ransom Mortuary in Astoria is in charge of arrangements. Visit www.hughes-ransom.com to share memories and sign the guest book.

Bradford Jay Sweet

Falcon Cove

Nov. 26, 1957 — May 8, 2015

Bradford Jay Sweet, born Nov. 26, 1957, passed away in Warrenton on May 8, 2015. Brad was born and raised in the Grande Ronde Valley, attended school in La Grande, and will be remembered by friends and local sports fans as a member of the 1974 La Grande Tigers team, winning the Class AAA State High School Football Championship.

Brad worked for Union Pacific Railroad for several years, before moving his young family to the Oregon Coast to own and operate a restaurant. After selling that business he started a septic service company, which has since grown and expanded to the current Sweet Septic Service, that covers Clatsop and Tillamook counties.

Bradford Sweet

Brad dedicated his time, love and remarkable generosity first to his children Hallie, 22, Nicholas, 21, and Joseph, 19, to his mother and next door neighbor, Joanne Cornelius; and all of his friends in Falcon Cove; secondly, to his extended family and many friends in Eastern Oregon, Florida and Texas; and lastly to so many friends on the North Coast.

Predeceasing Brad is his father Larry Sweet, and his brothers, Bryon and Mike.

On May 23, a celebration of life will be held at the Seaside Elks Lodge from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. A similar celebration for the large family and many friends in Eastern Oregon will be held at the Beck ranch in Alicel, to be announced at a later date.
