

The Illahee Apartments

In the late 1950's, prominent local architect Ebba Wicks Brown believed that downtown Astoria needed a modern apartment complex. Her dream was to exceed all expectations, providing futuristic architecture with modern conveniences and unsurpassed views in a superior downtown location. Her passion was so great that she spent over ten years planning and designing the most up-to-date apartment complex in the Pacific Northwest. Construction began in 1968 on the block bordered by 10th, 11th, Franklin and Grand. In 1969 The Illahee Apartments were opened.

Today, The Illahee Apartments are operated by the third generation of owners, passionate about maintaining our history and our goal of providing a superior downtown housing experience for those who appreciate a great location and superior views. Long-term or short-term, furnished or unfurnished- The Illahee remains the premier River View apartment complex in Downtown Astoria!
