

'How do you feel about the Goonies 30th anniversary celebration taking place this weekend?'

"It wasn't really my generation. I've seen the movie, though. It's hard to know what the fuss is about, really."

Bob Bogar, Astoria

"I think it's great that it brings people to our area.

Jennifer Bunch, Svensen

"I think it's a good thing. Anything that brings business to Astoria is lovely. Sounds fun.

was born in Astoria, Ore., to Wendell and Emma (Jackson) Holm, and was the oldest for four chil-

Betty lived on the family farm in Naselle, and was valedictorian for her graduating class from Naselle High School. After graduation she attended Willamette University in Salem, Ore., and graduated with a bachelor's degree in accounting. She worked as a CPA first in Bend, Ore., and then returned to Washington, where she worked for several employers, including Pay-N-Pak in the Seattle area, finally retiring from Longview Fiber in 1986.

Retirement was a term used lightly in Betty's life. She continued her accounting work for private clients and worked every tax season until the age of 88.

Betty had many interests in life. She enjoyed playing bridge and bowling, participating in a bowling league for many years. She was a master knitter and created many beautiful projects for loved ones and herself. Betty loved history, especially of the local area, and she was a member of the Pacific County Historical Society. She enjoyed genealogy and recorded the Holm and Jackson family histories.

Betty loved picking blackberries and digging for razor clams. The family was glad to take her digging because she did not like to eat clams, but was happy to contribute a limit for the fry pan or pot of chowder. The blackberries were a different matter; blackberry pie was her favorite desert. She also loved to travel, highlights being several trips to Hawaii, a trip to Nova Scotia to visit relatives, and to Scotland and Scandinavia to explore her Finnish heritage.

Betty was an avid reader and was rare-

Betty was an avid fan of the Seattle Mariners and Seahawks. She spent many hours listening to the Mariner games on the radio. It was only in the last couple of years that she finally got cable, so she could watch the games on TV. During football season, it was the University of Washington Huskies or Washington State University Cougar games on Saturday, and on Sunday, the Seahawks.

Family was important to Betty, and she loved to visit about happenings in the past and present. She was a kind and generous person, loved by family and friends.

Betty was preceded in death by her parents, Wendell and Emma (Jackson) Holm; her brothers, Edwin Holm and Dr. William Holm; her sister, Louise Holm Hunter; and a nephew, Lloyd Holm. She is survived by nieces Mitzi Hunter, Jennifer (Jonathan Hamel) Holm, Jill Holm, Eileen (Micah) Bickford; and nephews Peter Hunter, Keith Holm, Ian (Victoria) Holm, Jonathan (Amanda) Holm, and Matthew (Cyndi) Holm. She has many great-nieces and nephews and cousins.

A family graveside service at Peaceful Hill Cemetery in Naselle will be at noon on Saturday, June 6, 2015. A memorial service will be at 1 p.m. at the Naselle Lutheran Church, with a reception to follow

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Emma Holm Memorial Scholarship Fund.
