The Daily Astorian

A trove of old Daily Astorian photographs housed at the Clatsop County Historical Society shows the origins of “The Goonies” phenomenon in Astoria.

Few thought at the time of the filming three decades ago that the quirky coming-of-age adventure comedy would have staying power and become synonymous with the city.

The photos depict the film set in the Uppertown neighborhood that is home to the Goonies house on 38th Street and a car chase scene on Eighth Street.

9-1-WHAT?
THE BEST OF THE WORST CALLS TO ASTORIA 911 DISPATCH

Topless woman crawling on the sidewalk, drunken disc golf

Fun times! A slice of North Coast nightlife the folks in tourism promotion probably don’t want you to see.

Follow reporter Kyle Spurr on his 9-1-What? Twitter watch, where a few of the sometimes head-scratching calls to area dispatch centers take centerstage. The full feed is at www.twitter.com/9_1_WHAT.
