

"The Blue Bison" by Edward Peterson at Tempo Gallery.

Art walk: continued from page 10

the gallery will feature McMacken's paintings and his early work in the rock 'n' roll biz, which garnered him a place in the Album Cover Hall of Fame. This month, see a new art wall of "The Art of His Movie Posters" and a new Goonies poster, too.

7. Laughing Duck Digital Pond 120 10th St., Suite 3

See hand-colored digital photos. The journey has continued with experimenting, testing and an attitude of "lets see what will happen if I do this." Come in, have some wine and banter with the artist. Also on display is the continuing history of Naval aviation photos. Guest artist Lisa Ackerman will be exhibiting a painting, "The Power of Three."

8. Astoria Art Loft 106 Third St.

The Astoria Art Loft will host an open house and begin its Featured Artist Demo Program from 3 to 6 p.m. Saturday, June 13. This month Brigitte Willse, owner of French Cat Studio, LLC., is featured. A jewelry and mixed-media designer, Willse turns relics of the past such as chandelier crystals, military medallions, vintage jewelry, old watch parts and fabrics into one-of-a-kind pieces of wearable art. From 3 to 4 p.m. Willse will demonstrate how she designs and creates her jewelry. At 5:30 p.m. there will be a raffle for one of her creations; buy five raffle tickets for $1, with the proceeds gong to the Astoria Food Bank. Other loft resident artists will show their artwork in the gallery. Refreshments will be served.

ALSO FEATURING ORIGINAL ART

9. Winnifred Byrne Luminari Arts 1133 Commercial St.

Winnifred Byrne Luminari Arts presents "re: creation," an exhibition of new mosaics by Charlotte Bruhn. Bruhn adds a twist to traditional mosaics by creating all the tiles herself in high-definition detail and relief, the result being intense, colorful and 3D scenes reminiscent of ancient statuary and sacred works from a bygone era. Featured piece "The First Supper" will be supplemented with images of "Kuan yin," "Guadalupe," "Medusa" and other archetypal figures from mythological themes. Local band Acustica will bring its international repertoire of danceable music.

10. Forsythea Home & Garden Arts 1124 Commercial St.

Forsythea hosts Oregon artist Zemula Fleming in a solo exhibit. Drawn to the decorative storytelling art of the Byzantine Empire, the Middle Ages and the Renaissance, Fleming's pieces are rich in the patterns, textures and styles of period clothing. Her work combines elements of the sacred, mundane, fantastic and the realistic to create secular, religious, and sometimes pagan icons.

11. Astoria Visual Arts' Artist in Residence 1170 Commercial St.

Astoria Visual Arts' artist-in-resident Sarah Hendrickson will host a second Open Studio this month to show recent progress on her "Magic Carpet." This experimental piece is being constructed on an 8-by-8-foot loom that the artist made entirely from scratch, honoring ancient tapestry techniques.

12. Adagio

1174 Commercial St.

On display are antique African masks and original Japanese woodblock prints from the Shin-Hanga and Sosaku-Hanga periods. Adagio's collection of vintage Japanese silk haori "wearable art" now includes creations in Tencel by Barbara Hall and painted silks by Kavita. This month local artist Brianna Lichnovsky is featured with her enchanting "Folkings" cards and handmade flora dyed Habutai silk scarves.

13. Maiden Astoria 255 14th St.

Maiden Astoria has been in business for one month. Come and meet the artists who helped Maiden Astoria happen. Alisa Burke and Andy Gun will explain their Maiden painting; Ashley Mersereau from Roots and Wings Jewelry is setting up a trunk show; Erica D'Alessandro from Taiga Press will be presenting new designs and her letterpress cards.

14. Artists Alley at Pier 11 77 11th St.

Artists Alley at Pier 11 features local artists in a variety of mediums, including multi-media art, jewelry, paintings and more.

15. Sea Gypsy Gifts 1001 Commercial St.

See the colorful work of Brianna Horton, who paints with bold, bright colors and uses rain water as an expression of chasing away the rainy days. See new mermaids and whales on local driftwood, windchimes by Michael Evans, and hand-beaded vintage lamps and fused-glass knobs by Jorja Halpin.
