

Waikiki Beach Concert Series celebrates 10 years of outdoor summer live music

CAPE DISAPPOINTMENT STATE PARK, Wash. — The Waikiki Beach Concert Series is celebrating 10 years of bringing summer music to Cape Disappointment State Park.

Concert performances start at 7 p.m. on the second and fourth Saturdays in June, July and August at the Confluence Project amphitheater at Cape Disappointment State Park's Waikiki Beach, 244 Robert Gray Drive. Visitors may take along a chair or blanket and listen to music ranging from bluegrass to rock with the Pacific Ocean as a backdrop.

Concerts performances are scheduled as follows:

- June 13: Napua and Friends play traditional and contemporary Hawaiian music. The band's appearance is sponsored by the National Endowment for the Arts, Northwest Heritage Resources and the Washington State Parks Foundation.
