Long Beach hosts two races June 20
Beach To Chowder 5K/10K Walk/Run, half marathon set

LONG BEACH PENINSULA, Wash. — Both the Beach to Chowder 5K/10K Walk/Run and the Discovery Trail Half Marathon will take place on Saturday, June 20 on Washington's Long Beach Peninsula. A perfect mix of activities for families and friends, the annual event features a spectacular oceanfront course on hard pack sand for 5K and 10K participants and a serpentine, paved dune trail yielding ocean vistas for distance runners. Breathtakingly beautiful among other half marathons in Washington, the certified course is an out and back predominantly on Discovery Trail, a gently rolling, asphalt-paved path buffered from the ocean winds by grassy dunes. Runners start and finish under the "World's Longest Beach" arch, a block from the stores, galleries, restaurants, ice cream and taffy shops of Washington's quintessential beach town. The half marathon start time is 8:45 a.m. The relaxed 5K walk/run and exhilarating 10K run also promise great ocean views as well as cooling ocean breezes. Participants pushing baby strollers and accompanied by dogs on leashes are permitted on the 5K course. Start times are 9 a.m. for the 10K and 9:15 a.m. for the 5K.

The chowder feed, food and music start at 10:30 a.m. with door prizes drawn at 11:30 a.m. The Awards Ceremony will take place at noon at the Gazebo on Third Street and Pacific Highway in Long Beach. Non-entrants can purchase chowder for $5. Chowder Run awards will be given to runners finishing in the top three places for women and men in each of nine age-group divisions. Trophies will be given to the top overall male and female finishers in all three races. All finishers will receive a medal and will be entered in a drawing for prizes donated by the town's merchants. All ages and levels of ability are welcome, and spectators are invited to cheer on the participants. Registration fees are $70 (plus fees) for the half marathon including an event shirt and $30 (plus fees) for the 5K or 10K with a shirt or $15 (plus fees) without. All registrations include use of a timing chip. Registered participants also receive tickets to the chowder feed. For online registration and more information, visit www.beachtochowder.com
