

SMART kids earn awards

Submitted photo

The Veterans Speaker Bureau provided Awesome Award Certificates to 31 students at the Warrenton Grade School for their participation in the Start Making a Reader Today Program. M'Liz Crawford, program coordinator, handed out the awards and thanked the teachers who have helped keep the second and third graders working with the adult volunteers. The program starts again at WGS in October. Volunteers are needed to assist for one hour or more a week, on a Tuesday or Thursday morning or afternoon. Those interested in volunteering should call M'Liz Crawford at 503-791-1613 for information.

Daisy Scouts share year highlights on KMUN

On Saturday, the Daisy Girl Scout Troop of Knappa shared highlights of their year with the listeners of the Skinnamarink show, hosted by Debbie Twombly on KMUN, Coast Community Radio.

The girls just finished their kindergarten and first grade years at Hilda Lahti Elementary School. At the Girl Scouts' Daisy Level, girls work to complete a flower by earning petals. They recently earned petals for working on recycling projects, and several girls described bird feeders they had made from recycled materials. They also shared information on composting and the life cycle of strawberries. They will soon take part in Riverwalk and beach cleanups.

Skinnamarink airs at 11 a.m. Saturday mornings on KMUN and KTCB. For information, call the station at 503-325-0010.

The Daisy Girl Scout Troop of Knappa, and their troop leaders, recently visited the Skinnamarink show, hosted by Debbie Twombly, back row, center, at KMUN.

RELIGION BRIEFS

Astoria Baha'i

The Astoria Baha'i community is hosting a free lecture by physicist Steven Phelps, "Science, Religion and the Investigation of Reality," Saturday at the home of Tod and Betsy Jones, 300 W. Irving Ave. The evening begins at 6 p.m. with dinner, followed by Phelps' presentation.

Phelps received bachelor's degrees in physics and philosophy at Stanford University and a Ph.D. in physics from Princeton University. He worked for 13 years at the Baha'i World Center in Haifa, Israel, in its research department, directing the cataloging, collation, and translation of the Baha'i Writings. During that time, he concurrently held positions in the Physics Department at the Technion University in Haifa and pursued original research in the field of theoretical cosmology. He lives near Portland, with his wife, Katharine, and three daughters.

Bethany Free Lutheran

Bethany Free Lutheran Church, 451 34th St., is having a guest speaker on Sunday at 10 a.m. The Rev. Wade

Steven Phelps

Mobley, who recently began serving as dean of the Free Lutheran Seminary, will be sharing about the work of the Association of Free Lutheran Congregations' schools. Mobley is also participating in the 11 a.m. worship service, and delivering the sermon. The public is welcome. For information call 503-325-2925.

Unitarian Universalist

The Pacific Unitarian Universalist Fellowship holds a service at 11 a.m. Sunday at the First Congregational Church, 820 Alameda Ave. The Rev. Kit Ketcham is delivering a sermon, "Experiencing Ministry Together."

This Sunday, the annual

Flower Communion is being celebrated. It is a ceremony that originated in 1923 in Czechoslovakia, and those attending are asked to bring a flower or two to share. The monthly potluck follows.

Arline LaMear is the lay leader, and Erin Glenn and her son, Diego, are the greeters.

For information, call 503-338-6883 or go to www.pac-uuf.org

First Lutheran

First Lutheran Church, 725 33rd St., is offering a week-long Day Camp for elementary-aged children the week of June 22-26. The theme is "What Matters Most." The campers will play games, hike to the Cathedral Tree, and ride Astoria's trolley, weather permitting. The hours are 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. June 22-25, and 9 to 11:30 a.m. June 26.

Day Camp is free for all campers. Children should be entering first grade in the fall, and may be as old as just finishing fifth grade. Campers should bring a sack lunch, but beverages and nutritious snacks are provided.

Day Camp is staffed by trained college-aged counselors from Camp Lutherwood in Cheshire who will lead music, crafts, Bible adventures and games. Middle school and high school volunteers serve as junior counselors, and adult volunteers guide each age group.

Parents are invited to the church at 7 p.m. June 25 for an Ice Cream Social, and the children will share what they've learned during week.

Registration forms are being accepted the first day of camp, but preregistration is appreciated. Forms are available at the church office and online at www.astoriafirstlutheran.com

For questions, call the church at 503-325-6252.

Beit Salmon

Congregation Beit Salmon's first Shabbat services of the summer are being held at 11 a.m. Saturday in the Fellowship Hall of Peace Lutheran Church, 565 12th St., followed by an Oneg Potluck. Rabbi Abram Goodstein from Hebrew Union College in Los Angeles is leading the service.

At 11 a.m. Sunday, at the same location, there is a meeting to discuss and plan the Jewish community's adult and children's educational needs during the summer.

For information, call Ann Goldeen at 503-791-4611.

St. Mary Star of the Sea

On Saturday, June 6, St. Mary, Star of the Sea Parish hosted the first Mass celebrated by newly ordained Father Fredy Bonilla Moreno.

The Children's Sunday Liturgy begins at the 10:30 a.m. Mass on Sunday. All children will be dismissed for fifteen minutes during the homily.

The Catholic Daughters scholarship winners are: First place, Jordan Gagnon; second place, Kiley Prom; and third place, Gema Garcia. They also won Knights of Columbus WC Wallace scholarship awards of $500 each. Service awards of $500 each went to Prom and Gagnon, who also won the Charlie Turina Scholar/Athlete Award of $100.

Rotational volunteers are needed, including four to five catechists. This can include parents and anyone else who feels a calling to this ministry. Up to ten youth helpers are also needed for grades 7-12. For information, call Rosy Doyle at 503-738-6065.

Calvary Episcopal

SEASIDE — The Rt. Rev. Michael Hanley, Episcopal Bishop of Oregon, is ordaining Diane Higgins as a deacon on Saturday. He has assigned her to serve at Calvary Episcopal Church, 503 N. Holladay Drive in Seaside, where her first worship service as a deacon is at 9:30 a.m. Sunday. The public is welcome.

Higgins began her ordination process at Calvary. Part of her ministry is to assist in celebrations of the Holy Eucharist and with the pastoral and program needs of the parish.

"It has been some time since Calvary's clergy has included a deacon. We are very pleased and looking forward to Diane serving with us," the Rev. David Sweeney, rector of the church, said.

For information, call 503-738-5773.
