Appelo Archive Center celebrates 10 years Nonprofit hosts open house, is dedicated to region history

NASELLE, Wash. — The Appelo Archive Center will host an Open House Reception in honor of its 10th anniversary from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday, June 20. The Appelo Archive Center was opened under the Wahkium Community Foundation in 2005. It became its own 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization in April 2010. The dream of founder Carlton Appelo, the archive center was opened as a place to share the rich history of the Naselle-Grays River Valley and its surrounding areas. The Appelo Archive Center is dedicated to encouraging the study of region-wide history by preserving collections, sponsoring community and educational activities, facilitating genealogical research, and fostering Scandinavian studies with an emphasis on Finnish-American heritage. The public is welcome to come commemorate this occasation. The Appelo Archive Center is located at 1056 Washington State Route 4. For more information, call 360-484-7103 or visit www.appeloarchives.org
