The Half Hearted to perform in Long Beach

LONG BEACH, Wash. — One of the Peninsula Arts Center's favorite duos is coming back to Long Beach this weekend: The Half Hearted.

These two veterans of the Portland music scene — Matthew Henry Curl and Chris Hayes — bring a blend of amazing covers of favorite songs and compelling originals to the peninsula. Curl is one of the best singers to be found around the Northwest, and Hayes provides amazing guitar work.

If you like the sounds of U2, Simon and Garfunkel, and Roy Orbison, you'll enjoy the Half Hearted. Hear the duo play at 7 p.m. Saturday, June 27.

Wine, beer and other refreshments will be available. The Peninsula Arts Center is located at 504 Pacific Ave. Admission is $12; doors open at 6:30 p.m. Reservations can be made at www.peninsulaartscenter.org or by calling 360-901-0962.

Concerts benefit the Long Beach Peninsula Acoustic Music Foundation, a 501(c)3 nonprofit charitable organization.

North Coast ABATE invites bike riders to join fundraiser

ASTORIA — Motorcycle riders, come out for a ride for fun and a good cause. The 20th annual North Coast ABATE Around Saddle Mountain Run is Saturday, June 27. All bikes and riders are welcome.

This is a poker run and includes a 50-50 drawing and other prizes to raise funds for Clatsop County's hungry families, benefiting area food banks and kids.

Riders will meet at 9 a.m. at the Astoria Moose Lodge located at 420 17th St. to sign in. The run departs at 10 a.m. and visits Clatskanie, Vernonia, Elsie and Seaside. There is a $20 fee that includes a meal at the Seaside American Legion at the conclusion of the run.

The North Coast Chapter of ABATE is a group of riders promoting awareness of cycle and road safety, but mainly the group wants all riders of all motorcycles to enjoy the roads and share the company of other riders.

For information about the ride or North Coast ABATE, contact Carl Earl at 503-325-6932 or email info@northcoast-abate.com
