

Astoria's Fridtjof Fremstad, No. 2, steals home in the fifth inning of the baseball game against Singapore in Astoria Sunday. Astoria won the game 10-5 in five innings after the game was called due to time constraints.

Harber makes the jump to pro

The Daily Astorian

Astoria's Conor Harber announced Sunday that he will sign today with the Milwaukee Brewers, and hopes to begin play soon with the team's minor league affiliate in Helena, Mont.

Less than three weeks after being selected by the Brewers in the 16th round of the Major League Baseball draft, Harber plans to travel today to Helena, where he will sign.

The Helena Brewers — a Rookie League affiliate of Milwaukee — compete in the North Division of the Pioneer League.

"I'll sign a contract and hopefully start playing," said Harber, who played two years at Western Nevada College, then played the 2015 season at the University of Oregon.

After being drafted in previous years by Tampa Bay and Baltimore, Harber said he felt the time was right to turn pro.

"As long as you can get into the system and start working your way up ... as long as you get that chance, then things are good," he said. "I'll miss Oregon a lot, but I'm excited."

Astoria Ford rallies for win over Singapore

The Daily Astorian

Astoria Ford scored seven runs in the bottom of the fifth inning Sunday night, on its way to a 10-5 win over Singapore, in another international exhibition game at Aiken Field.

Less than a week after topping the Perth (Australia) Heat, Astoria Ford defeated the Singapore team in the first of a three-game series.

The same two teams battle tonight and again Tuesday (both games 7 p.m.) at Aiken Field. Both teams will also play a "junior varsity" game each day (5 p.m.), before the older squads play.

In Sunday's win, a sacrifice fly by Astoria's Ryker Helmersen scored Nick Scott in the fifth inning to give the Fishermen the lead for good.

Trey Hageman had two hits and two RBIs to lead Astoria Ford, including a double in the fifth.

Kai Brown picked up the win in relief for Astoria, while Kyle Froemke took the loss for Singapore.

Carter Wallace had a double in the first inning to help Astoria to an early lead, before Singapore answered with two runs each in the second and third innings for a 4-1 lead.

Singapore's Go Ogawa, No. 50, beats out a tag by Astoria's Jackson Arnsdorf, No. 11, in the first inning.
