OBITUARY

Diane Marie (Welty) Cox

Astoria
Dec. 28, 1944 — June 24, 2015

Diane was born Dec. 28, 1944, to Winston and Mary Helen Welty in Monterey Park, Calif., and was raised in various cities in California. She attended high school in Tulare, Calif.

She was wed to William B. Cox in the early 1960s. He and two children, Joseph and Paula, survive her. Diane's sister, Janice, passed earlier this year. One brother, David, died last year. Her remaining brother, Dan, and his wife, reside in Lancaster, Calif. Grandchildren are Cali, Joseph, Cody, Robert, Elizabeth and Gracie. There is one great-grandson, born to Joseph and his wife a short time ago, and various nieces, nephews and in-laws living throughout the U.S.

Some of her proudest moments came from being the retired proprietor of Grandma's House in Astoria during the 1990s. Also, thinking and speaking of God. Although not a veteran, she was extremely patriotic. She loved rock 'n roll and country music.

There will be no service at this time, other than personal remembrances by family and close friends.

She would relish knowing that all her acquaintances contributed stipends to any or all veterans' causes.

Should a celebration of life be in your thoughts, she would say dig out some John Fogerty, Rod Stewart, or other old rocker, and listen while thinking of her.

Diane's remains are with her family. She will be interred with her husband in some veterans' cemetery upon his demise.
