

Grammy Award-winning duo play Tillamook

Tillamook County Arts Network hosts Tingstad and Rumbel

TILLAMOOK — Some artists fall in love with Tillamook County because of the place and others because of the people. Grammy Award-winners Eric Tingstad and Nancy Rumbel fell in love with the people of Tillamook County at their first concert there in 1995 and have been returning ever since. Their upcoming concert will be a benefit for Tillamook County Arts Network. Tingstad and Rumbel bring to the stage a rare and admirable combination of talent, virtuoso musicianship and an entertaining style beginning at 2 p.m. Sunday, July 12 at Tillamook Nazarene Church.

Tingstad and Rumbel have played the gamut of stages. From Carnegie Hall to National Parks, they are known for their original compositions and innovative treatments of popular American standards. The duo also enjoy performing musical styles from around the world. A piece featuring Spanish or Caribbean rhythms may be followed by elegant interpretations of a classic Chinese lullaby or an Irish folk song. Their concerts take the audience on an instrumental journey of sound and imagination. The concert will showcase Tingstad and Rumbel's blending of Americana finger-style guitar with melodic woodwinds creating a captivating musical experience, leaving the listener wanting more.

Advance tickets are on sale now: $15 for adults and $10 for students by calling 503-392-4581. Tickets will also be available at the door the day of the concert at $20 for adults and $15 for students. Tillamook Nazarene Church is located at 2611 Third St.

Tillamook County Arts Network is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization founded in 2000 to strengthen, illuminate and promote the visual, performing and literary arts in Tillamook County. TCAN believes that a strong, vibrant, livable community has a healthy arts and culture component. TCAN relies on its annual fundraiser to help support its effort on behalf of the county. Recently, TCAN entered into a partnership with Visit Tillamook Coast and now provides arts and cultural information as part of the new outreach to visitors.

NW Artist Guild opens show

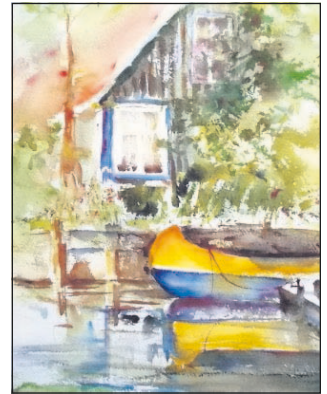

See work at old Long Beach Train Depot

LONG BEACH, Wash. — Northwest Artist Guild embarks on its summer show at the old Long Beach Train Depot, 102 Third St. N.W.

The show will run Friday to Sunday, July 10 to 12 and will include works from the guild members, including Martha Lee, Stan Riesel, Betsy Toepfer, Kent Toepfer, Susan McCloud, Kathryn Murdock and other members.

The guild has been working together as an art family for a little over two years and is steadily growing in numbers. Artists work in watercolor, pastel, acrylic and collage, with a mix from abstract to realism.

The group has a total of four shows for 2015 with the next one at the Cove Restaurant in Long Beach in November.
