

Van Dusen named to Pacific Power advisory board

The Daily Astorian

PORTLAND — The former longtime mayor of Astoria is joining Pacific Power's Regional Advisory Board, a select group of well-respected local community leaders who work with both their communities and Pacific Power to foster effective communication.

Willis Van Dusen will represent the northern Oregon Coast. He served as mayor of Astoria from 1990 to 2014 and is president of Van Dusen Beverages Inc., a longtime North Coast bottling company. The Van Dusen family enterprises, which date to 1849 in Astoria, have made them Oregon's oldest family owned business.

"We have worked closely with Willis in Astoria for decades," said Stefan Bird, Pacific Power president and chief executive officer. "It will be extremely valuable to be able to seek his insights on business and community matters. And I know he will give us the unvarnished counsel for which he is well known."

Van Dusen and Teri Cline of Klamath Falls join three other distinguished Northwest community leaders on the Regional Advisory Board. Angela Boothroyd, of Redmond is a financial advisor with Edward Jones; Leigh Johnson is a consultant based in Medford; and Dr. Steve VanAusdler is the president of Walla Walla (Wash.) Community College.

OBITUARIES

Avis Hendrickson

Bellevue, Wash.

Feb. 9, 1927 — July 8, 2015

Avis Ilene Hendrickson, born Feb. 9, 1927, died July 8, 2015.

Avis was born in Coleridge, Neb., and was raised in Fruita, Colo. Her parents were Pearl (Sherer) and Luman Earl Cisney. She was preceded in death by her loving brothers and sisters, Lawrence, Warren, Weldon, Hazel and Shirley. She was a loving and devoted wife to Arnold, who passed away in 2002. They were married for 56 years. She was a loving mother to Arne (Linda) and Anne (Mark). Devoted grandmother to Sarah Stair (Russell), Mark (Sara), Su and Emily. Wonderful great-grandmother to Ellen, Robert and Mary Stair.

Avis Hendrickson

factory in Astoria, finally proudly retiring as a U.S. Postal Service employee in 1989. She was a devoted postal employee — immediately following the devastating Feb. 9, 1971 (her birthday) Sylmar/Los Angeles earthquake, she quickly went home from work to check on Arnold and Anne, and then returned to the post office to make sure that the mail continued to go through despite the fear, confusion and aftershocks.

She spent her retirement caring for Arnold, and also spending as many waking hours as possible with her grandkids, of whom she was extremely proud. She filled her memory with thoughts of "her kids" and was never at a loss for a story of each one, complete with minute details.

Avis was a wonderful cook who could create a delicious meal for a crowd of any size just with the ingredients she had on hand in her pantry. She also loved to sew, and made many beautiful quilts which she gifted to friends and family. Although Avis was comfortable in her later adult life, she never forgot what life was like growing up in the 1920s and 1930s, and as a result she was an incredibly resourceful wife and parent. One of her proudest accomplishments was encouraging and supporting her children to attend and graduate from college. College wasn't merely an option for Arne and Anne — it was a requirement, and she did what she had to do to make their dreams a reality.

Avis was able to fit some travel into her busy life — she visited New York City, the Caribbean, Calgary, Canada and many other western states.

Avis had an outgoing personality and was great at reading people. She never met a stranger. Growing up, she was the life of the party, making many lifelong friends along the way. Her legendary mothering and friendship will live on in the hearts of her friends and family, who will always miss her.

In lieu of flowers, please make a donation in her memory to your local chapter of the Disabled American Veterans. Avis will rest next to Arnold at the Riverside, Calif., National Cemetery.

Robert John Hansen Jr.

Campbell, Calif.

Nov. 2, 1931 — July 6, 2015

The Rev. Robert John Hansen Jr. entered peacefully into eternal continuum, lovingly surrounded by family and friends on July 6.

Robert was born Nov. 2, 1931, in Seaside, Ore., living his childhood there on a golf course, inciting his lifelong passion for golf.

He proudly served his country as a member of the U.S. Navy, stationed on Midway Island. Upon his discharge he met and married his wife, Sally. Married for 60 years, they raised their family of seven children in Campbell, Calif.

He is survived by his wife; brother, Dane (Beth); sister, Mary Maclay (John); seven children; 16 grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren, with two more on the way.

He received his BS degree in electrical engineering in 1960, with honors, from San Jose State University, and worked as a microwave engineer for over 40 years. In the mid-1960s, he entered into the priesthood, serving a number of parishes for over 40 years.

He wore a multitude of hats: loving father, passionate golfer, and priest, marrying, blessing and burying hundreds. He helped grow and establish a community cabana club that continues to unify generations.

A memorial service will honor his life on Friday, July 17, 2015, at 3 p.m., at St. Jude's Episcopal Church, 20920 McClellan Road, Cupertino, CA 95014.

He will be forever loved and greatly missed. In lieu of flowers, please donate to St. Jude Children's Hospital, or the charity of choice.

Rev. Robert Hansen Jr.
