CCC Upward Bound presents 'Shakespeare 'n' Love'

Summer academy students to perform scenes from Shakespeare comedies

ASTORIA — Local high school students from the Clatsop Community College Upward Bound Summer Academy will present "Shakespeare 'N' Love," a night of comedic scenes by William Shakespeare. Astor Street Opry Company will host the performance that starts at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, July 28 at the ASOC Playhouse.

Admission is free, and seating is on a first-come basis. Doors open at 7 p.m. Donations are welcome and will benefit the Astor Street Opry Company building fund.

The "Shakespeare 'N' Love" cast includes Brenton Davis, Brian Sheppard, Brittany Virgillo, Caitlynn Howe, Chase Ferrell, Cheyenne Lyon, David J. Foster, Emily Matlock, Faith Smith, Hally Chauvin, Ian McCrary, Isaac Gray, Matthew Duncan, Phoenix Miller and Ryan Laforteza.

The students will be performing scenes from "As You Like It," "A Midsummer Night's Dream," "Much Ado About Nothing," "The Taming of the Shrew" and "Twelfth Night."

Shanda Bonn, an instructional aide and head dance team coach for Seaside High School who also has a background in theater, will direct the performance.

Upward Bound is a TRiO precollege program of the U.S. Department of Education. The program is 100 percent funded by a federal grant in the amount of $296,588 and provides advising, tutoring, mentoring, cultural enrichment and academic instruction for students in ninth through 12th grades. The Summer Academy is a college-simulation experience to promote success in education beyond high school. Students attend academic classes in the morning and participate in hands-on group projects in the afternoon.

Astor Street Opry Company Playhouse is located at 129 W. Bond St. For more information, contact the Upward Bound office at 503-338-2370.

American Legion hosts annual craft bazaar, bake sale

Auxiliary to give proceeds from fair, raffle to veterans at Oregon VA hospitals

CANNON BEACH — The Cannon Beach American Legion Auxiliary will hold its annual craft bazaar and bake sale from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday, July 25.

The fair will feature 30 craft vendors both inside and outside the legion hall in midtown Cannon Beach. It will also feature a huge bake sale with pies, cookies and treats. This year's raffle will be "American Valor," a red, white and blue patterned quilt. The raffle drawing will be at 5:30 p.m. The bazaar and bake sale is the auxiliary's big fundraiser for hospitalized veterans in Oregon's four VA hospitals.

There will be artists selling reed baskets, metal sculpture, jewelry, quilted objects, cookbooks for men, pottery, fused glass, beach trinkets, bonsai plants, hand-painted cards, bamboo objects, jams and jellies, photography and much more. Like last year, there will be vendors inside the American Legion building, and more vendors outside in tents.

The bake sale will take place indoors and is always a popular event. Customers are warned to arrive early to enjoy the delicious pies, cakes, cookies, bars and breads. A café-style area will be set up outside for those who want to have their coffee and enjoy their treats right away.

Fran Carey, president of the Cannon Beach American Legion Auxiliary, encourages the public to attend and give their support to hospitalized wounded veterans.

American Legion Post 168 is located at 1216 S. Hemlock St. For information, call 503-436-2973.
