Missoula Children's Theatre camp puts on 'Sleeping Beauty'

Liberty Theater hosts two back-to-back performances of rock 'n' roll fable July 25

ASTORIA — The Liberty Theater's annual summer theater camp production is "Sleeping Beauty – Rock 'n' Roll Fable for the ages."

After a week of practicing and having fun during Missoula Children's Theatre camp residency, local students will present this original adaptation of the classic fairy tale at 3 p.m. and again at 5:30 p.m. Saturday, July 25 at the Liberty

Theater, 1203 Commercial St.

This version of "Sleeping Beauty" was conceived and written by Don Kukla. Music and lyrics are by Kukla and Michael McGill.

In this performance, a new princess is born, and from far and wide the people of the kingdom gather to celebrate. One simple mistake is made — an invitation is misplaced — and the wrath of the vicious Scarella falls upon the poor infant in the form of a spell. Sleeping Beauty is now destined to sleep for eternity if she should prick her finger on a spindle before she reaches her 16th birthday.

Sleeping Beauty's Fairy Godmothers do their best to amend the spell, but Scarella, with the help of some nasty Trolls, tricks Sleeping Beauty into pricking her finger and the spell takes effect. Five hundred years pass, and Sleeping Beauty wakes to find herself in a rock 'n' roll dream.

Also featured in this production are the King and the Queen, Spot, the Fairies, the Palace Attendants and the Caterpillars.

The show is sponsored by Columbia Memorial Hospital Pediatrics.

Tickets cost $10 for adults and $5 for students, seniors and military. There is also a performer family member rate of $8 for adults and $4 for students, seniors and military for both performances.

The Liberty Theater box office is open from 2 to 5:30 p.m. Tuesday to Saturday and two hours before the show. Tickets may also be purchased through TicketsWest at 503-224-8499.
