Wood and Arts Fest set

Tokeland hosts artists, vendors and more

TOKELAND, Wash. — The Tokeland-North Cove Chamber of Commerce invites the public to the 2015 Tokeland Wood and Arts Fest, to be held at the Tokeland Hotel, located at 100 Hotel St.

The event will run from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday, July 25 and from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sunday, July 26.

The festival will feature chainsaw carvers, wood artists, builders, craftsmen, and local artists selling and displaying their work. Artists will be on hand to share their original creations and do demonstrations.

Vendors will include Washaway by Senja, which will have signs, mosaics and some new furniture; jewelry maker Judith Altruda, and many more.

Children's games, food vendors and live entertainment are scheduled for both days.

For more information, contact Teri Harrington at tokelandwoodandatrsfest@ gmail.com or call 360-904-2214.

Competitions will be set up by age group.

The cost is $4 if you preregister over the phone by calling 503-325-7275 or in person at the Astoria Parks & Recreation office, 1997 Marine Drive. The cost is $5 if you sign up at Kids Summer Olympics.

Both prices get participants a guaranteed entry into two events. Any extra event you would like to sign up for will cost $1 each.

The first event will start at 6 p.m., so come early to check in or sign up. The last event will began no later then 8:30 p.m.

T-shirts will be sold at the event, and concessions will be available.

Lunch in the Loft with Willy Vlautin

Beach Books hosts Oregon Book Award-winning author

SEASIDE — Beach Books will host musician and author Willy Vlautin as its next guest for the Lunch in the Loft author series at noon Friday, July 31.

Vlautin is founder of the band Richmond Fontaine, which has produced nine studio albums. He is also the author of four highly acclaimed novels, the most recent of which is "The Free," which won an Oregon Book Award.

"This guy writes like the secret love child of Raymond Carver and Flannery O'Connor - just plain, true, tough, irony-free, heartrending American fiction about people living in the third-world sections of our country," said New York Times bestselling author Michael Gruber.

Born in Reno, Nevada, Vlautin now lives in Scappoose. "It's bound to be another awesome event," said Beach Books owner Karen Emmerling. "Maybe we'll even get him to sing for

Cost for Lunch in the Loft is $25 and includes a catered lunch and copy of "The Free." Beach Books is located at 616 Broadway. To reserve a spot or for more information, call 503-738-3500, or visit www.beachbooks37.com

Astoria Parks & Rec holds Kids Summer Olympics

ASTORIA — Run, jump, throw: Reach for your best at Astoria Parks and Recreation's Kids Summer Olympics. For youth ages 17 and under, the event will be held from 6 to 9 p.m. Friday, July 24 at the Astoria High School track.

There will be three running events, including a 100-meter dash, and 200-meters and 400-meters runs. Jumping events include 100-meter hurdles and the sandpit jump. The throwing event will be the shot put. In the relay race, four participants will pass the baton as they complete one lap of the track.

Submit entries to 'Quilts on the Willapa'

RAYMOND, Wash. — Area people are invited to display their sewing projects at the 2015 "Quilts on the Willapa" show scheduled for July 31 and Aug. 1 at Raymond High School, located at 825 Commercial St. The annual event, sponsored by the Willapa Harbor Quilters, is open to the public.

The annual show includes vendors, an opportunity for sewing machine repairs, and chances to win the Willapa Harbor Quilters' 2015 raffle quilt, a red work masterpiece. The raffle quilt drawing will take place at the end of the Pacific County Fair on Aug. 29.

Quilts may be entered in the show by delivering them to the Raymond Baptist Church, 913 Durvea St., from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Tuesday, July 28.

Quilt show hours are from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. July 31 and from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Aug. 1.

Willapa Harbor Quilters is a group of about 30 individuals who meet weekly, with some exceptions, throughout the year. Weekly sessions are from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Tuesday and from 7 to 9 p.m. Thursday at the Raymond Baptist Church. For more information, call Willapa Harbor Quilters' President Pat Jones at 360-942-2910.

There is no charge to see the quilt show, but donations are appreciated to help offset the cost of hiring local teens, who help set up and take down displays for the show.
