Cannon Beach Gallery opens 'Imagine That' art exhibition

CANNON BEACH — Cannon Beach Gallery announces its upcoming exhibition "Imagine That," opening with a reception from 5 to 7 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 1.

The exhibition is the result of an invitation to artists to take a 12-by-12-inch panel and allow their imaginations to take flight. With no themes or restrictions other than those set by the starting point — the blank board — this may be one of the most diverse shows in the gallery's program.

"Imagine That" features many talented Northwest artists, and each work is priced at $150.

The exhibition is a major fundraiser for the Cannon Beach Arts Association with many of the artists donating the full proceeds of the sale of their work.

The show is supported by funding partner the James F. & Marion L. Miller Founda-
